

Recent photo received by The Post and being placed on display in the office window are of unusual local interest.

In one photo, Capt. B. C. Maidens of H.Q., 2nd Div., R.C.A., overseas, is shown examining the prize of $150.00 in Victory Bonds awarded to his unit for selling the most bonds per capita in the Eighth Victory Loan Campaign.

Another photo is a group of officers of units paralleling Capt. Maidens' high achievements shown as they were being presented with their respective prizes. The presentation was made by Maj. Gen. A. Bruce Matthews, CBE, DSO.

Still another photo shows LAC Bruce Waddell in the cab of a heavy refueling truck as it stands beside a huge RCAF plane in an airfield in Burma. Caption of the photo said, "The bowser men, queuing up between sorties, share in credit for the high efficiency of an RCAF squadron carrying war supplies in Burma.
