VANDELEUR

Happy New Year to the Editor and readers of The Advance.

The annual Vhristmas concert was held by Vandeleur school on Tuesday evening of last week. The school was nicely decorated and a well-laden Christmas tree filled the corner of interest. Mr. Chas. Boland ably filled the chairman's seat and a well prepared program of dialogues, drills, choruses, recitations, solos and duets was given by the pupils and their teacher, Miss M. Dawn. Mrs. Geo. Buchanan was pianist, and others assisting were Misses Marie and Dorothy Johnston with a duet, and Melville Buchanan a solo. Melville also conducted the community sing-song of Christmas carols. Pre-school pupils to give recitaions were: Donna Wyville, Ruth Graham and Jimmie Shaw. To complete the splendid entertainment Santa Claus arrived in his usual jovial spirits and distributed the gifts. Pte. H. Fitzsimmons and Vern Fawcett acted as assistants. The appreciation f all present goes to our teacher, Miss Dawn, who capably prepared this junior and young set of scholars to give such an enjoyable evening's entertaiment.

IN MEMORY OF JOHN CAMACK

Just a few lines in memory of the late Mr. John Camack as, having lived near him for a goodly number of years, we learned some of his good qualities of citizenship.

He was an obliging neighbor, never known to do harm to any of his neighbors and when asked to help, when help was needed, responded willingly, as so did his daughter, Miss Edith. Mr. Camack lived to a ripe old age, but, as we all know, we cannot live forever in this beautiful world. Yes, beautiful world. I often wonder just how many of us ever stop to think of God's kindness and goodness, to us, in giving us so many nice things — the flowers, the birds, and everything man could wish for. What dependent creatures we are? Let God withhold just for one year, our bounteous crops and where would we be? Every breath we breathe comes from God. We should try and remember all this. Mr. Camack was very honest and was proven in our dealings with him.—Cont.
