COUNTY & DISTRICT

A large frame building known as Stovel's block, Meaford, took fire at 2 a.m. Sunday, and was totally destroyed. N. Brady, baker and confectioner, lost his entire stock; B. Spike, shoemaker, stock partly lost; building and contents pretty well covered by insurance. No knowledge of how the fire originated.

On Wednesday evening of last week between 9 and 10 o'clock, while three young men named John Dixon, George Nixon and Jno. McIntyre were out rowing on the mill pond here, in a new boat of their own construction, the craft capsized, throwing the three occupants in the water. Dixon and McIntyre managed to save themselves by getting to some logs, but poor Nixon who could not swim was drowned. [Mt. Forest Representative.

During the severe thunder storm of Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Stewart, wife of Robt. Stewart, of lot 8, con. 3, Melancthon, was struck by lightening. Mr. Stewart was standing in the doorway and the injured woman was in the house at the time. She was badly injured. The right side from her face down was slightly burned and paralyzed. Dr. Rooney was sent for and did all that was possible to relieve the sufferer. It is expected that she will recover. [Shelburne Free Press.

ROBBED AND MUTILATED.—A Detroit despatch says: Last November William Snook, son of Henry Snook, a prominent citizen, left home, and no tidings were had of him until yesterday, when his father received word that a person answering to the description of his son had been drowned at Newport, Ont., and was buried there. The father went to Newport and before opening the grave was notified that he must not be shocked if he found the body mutilated. When asked what they meant the Newport citizens said that young Snook's body was stripped of all its valuables and then thrown into a trench ten inches deep and covered with sand. Mr. Snook demanded that the trench should be opened, and found that the unfortunate lad had been jambed into the earth, his face in the sand, both legs broken and turned back upon the trunk, this having been done in order to crowd the body into the small hole dug. The arms were also broken in several places. The corpse bore every evidence of having been jumped upon by the men employed to bury it. Mr. Snook brought the horribly mutilated body to Detroit, and fears to go back after the lad's effects, lest in his anger he may shoot the parties who committed the outrage.

We believe the unfortunate lad had relatives living in this vicinity.

Shiloh's Cure will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. For sale at the Medical Hall.
