

Dear Girls:-

I should have written and thanked you all sometime ago for the smokes which I have received. When I got down to write I found I had lost the address card. Today I receive another parcel of cigarettes from you. I want you all to •know I appreciate very much for the parcels which I have received from you. I thank you all very much. I am trying to get some photos of Rome. If I succeed I shall forward some of them on to you. Once more thanks very much for cigarettes.

Yours truly,
