Prof. Loisette's MEMORY DISCOVERY AND TRAINING METHOD

In spite of adulterated imitations which miss the theory, and practical results of the Original, in spite of the grossest misrepresentations by envious would-be competitors, and in spite of "base attempts to rob" him of the fruit of his labors, (all of which demonstrate the undoubted superiority and popularity of his teaching), Prof. Loisette's Art of Never Forgetting is recognized to-day in both Hemispheres as marking an Epoch in Memory Culture. His Prospectus (sent post free) gives opinions of people in all parts of the globe who have actually studied his System by correspondence, showing that his System is used only while being studied, not afterwards; that any book can be learned in a single reading, mind-wandering cured, &c. Durham had a fatal dog fight last week—not so fatal as it should have been, though, as several curs are still living.

Mr. John Cribbis, collector for the Township of Amabel, has absconded with about $2,000 of the municipality's funds.

The Brampton Times passed its 36th mile stone last week, and is even more vigorous than when in its younger days.

$1400 is what Allisfon village council has to pay Annie Lawson for being the indirect means of spraining her ankle. They will also pay $600 for the costs of the case.—[Creemore Star.

It is currently reported that Mr Jas. Webber of this town has been left a fortune of some $25,000 in the old country. We hear he is about to take a trip over to England to look after the boodle.—Review.

On Saturday last a little girl eight years old, daughter of Mr. Robert Hume, of Amaranth, was kicked in the abdomen by a wild steer. Inflamation of the bowels set in and the child is in a dangerous condition.—[Shelburne Free Press.

One day last week James Swanston, Dep. Reeve of Egremont, who lives near Yeovil, had an extraordinary increase to his stock, viz:—12 Leicester lambs, 10 pigs, 1 colt, and 1 calf. It is very questionable if any other ordinary farmer can report such an increase in twenty four hours.

Dunedin citizens concluded that beer would prove a good emetic for a sick cow. They procured the beer, consulted among themselves, came to the conclusion that the liquor might make the animal intemperate, and they downed it themselves. The cow is better.—[Creemore Star.

Orilla News Letter: A good one is told on Col. Gray, who inspects the armouries in this district and who is well known in Orillia. He is a soldierly looking officer and wears his uniform all the time. In a neighboring town the small boys took a great fancy to his uniform and followed him round for a time admiring his shape and garb. But the question that troubled them was his identity. At last one urchin approached the solemn-visaged soldier and propounded the questi n: "Say, mister, what band do you belong to?" Words don't avail to describe a warrior's feelings at times.—[Orilla News Letter.

A fatal accident occurred about fifteen miles from Thurso last week. A boy aged 16, son of Frank Conroy, was engaged with others in the pursuit of a deer. Young Conroy becoming seperated from his companions, came suddenly upon a deer, when it turned to attack him. He raised his gun to shoot, but it missed fire, and the animal rushing upon him he struck it with the butt end of the gun, when the gun was discharged, and the contents passed through his body. He only lived a short time after his companions reached him. They were hunting deer out of season.

A very serious and painful accident occurred at Holland Center on Saturday last while Henry Silverlock was chopping in the bush. The tree he was chopping lodged against another and uprooted, throwing him across a log and the top of the tree falling on his back. John Watson, who was working a few rods away, hearing a cry for help, came and found him. He managed to get him home and Dr. Oldham was summoned who found that he had three broken ribs and several scalp wounds. He was supposed to be getting better but has since got worse and his recovery is now doubtfull.—[Markdale Standard,
