Below I give a few testimonials:
Dear Sir.—The two pumps you put in for me are giving me splendid satisfaction (one of them 66 ft. deep, the other 23). I am well pleased with them. JOHN PORTEOUS, Flesherton.
MR. J. ARTLEY,
Dear Sir.—In reply to your's of the 12th inst., I would say that the pump you put in for me has proved very satisfactory. it being durable and very easy to work. Enclosed please find $5, balance for pump. JAMES JOHNSTON, Flesherton.
SATISFACTION AT LAST.—This is to certify that I have had great trouble and expense with my well (55 feet curb) in regard to pumps until I got Mr. J. Artley to overhaul it; since then I have had entire satisfaction. My little boy, six years old, can pump with it nicely.
ARTHUR JOHNSTON, Vandeleur.
June 16th, 1890.
Dear Sir.—Your favor to hand enquiring how we got along with the Wind Mill. I might say we had no diffictlty in putting it together. It is working splendid. The pump does its work all right. I like the working of the Victor Wind Mill very much. It governs itsself nicely in a high wind, and I think it far more durable than a wooden mill. N. DUXBURY, Meaford.
To JEFFREY ARTEY, Markdale:
Sir.—The pump I purchased from you for 27 foot well gives complete satisfaction. It works with the greatest ease, for the quantity of water delivered, of any pump I have ever tested. I believe it is constructed on a simple and durable principal and not liable to get out of order. I could not wish for a better pump, and can, with the utmost confidence, recommend it.
Wishing you every success I remain, yours &c., &c. J. W. SPROULE, Markdale.

A syndicate, composed of sixteen farmers of Downie, agreed during the hot weather to slaughter a beef between 2 and 3 years old. Each Monday for sixteen weeks a beef was killed, divided into 48 pieces, and the members of the syndicate allotted by number three cuts—steak, roast and boil—in such a manner that at the end of the sixteen weeks each member would have received a complete carcase, the person killing keeping the head and hide. This would give about 25 to 30 pounds of fresh meat per week to each member of the co-operative company.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT.

Wiarton's taxation rate is 22 mills on the dollar.

A move is on foot in Creemore for the formation of a band.

The Wiarton electric light system does not work satisfactorily.

The Collingwood Enterprise is just now engaged in the task of building a new office on Hurontario street.

The raising of flax is largely entered into around Mt. Forest. The Rep. says it is the best crop ever raised in that section.

The Advertiser says that "regularly every year the dog poisoning fined strikes Orangeville." During the past two weeks over a dozen canines have been treated in that line.

A complaint was made against Peter Rogers, John Tilsinger and Andrew Harrill, of Hanover, by Joseph Scales, of Brant, before M. McNamara, J. P., charging them with keeping dogs that killed one of his sheep and injured two lambs. The J. P. ordered the dogs to be shot and their owners to pay Mr. Scales $10 and the costs of the prosecution.

On Monday afternoon last, as Mr. Walker Scott, teamster for Mr. Jno. Harrison, was driving a load in the lumber yard, he accidentally knocked over a pile of lumber, which fell on Mr. Jno. Hill, who was sitting close by, throwing him down and breaking his leg so badly between the knee and ankle that the bone protruded through the unfortunate man's pants. The lumber had to be removed before Mr. Hill could be raised from his painful position, when he was as soon as possible conveyed to his home in Brooke, a short distance north of the Pottawatamie bridge, and Dr. Cameron called in to set the broken limb. It is probable that Mr. Hill, who has lost the sight of one of his eyes, did not notice the teamstear drive by till the lumber fell upon him.—[O. S. Times.

They must have a prety tough lot of young men in Creemore. The Star shows them up in a half column editorial. Among other things it says: Accustomed as they are to loaf around corners, listening to tales, always unchaste in their import, and enjoying the lewd language that is rampant in such places, there is little wonder that they feel out of their element when walking beside a girl. They become so used to "smut," so impregnated with it we may say, that they can enjoy little or nothing else. They live on their fancies, building castles in the air, look with suspicion upon every couple they see, form wrong opinions of men and women generally, and hold a poor opinion of women especially. Such is their training; boorish, uncouth and uncivilized, they live out their days on the street corners and are to the world as stagnant water compared with the living water of the flowing stream.

No person in any other walk of life, perhaps, is so much assailed by the conflicting winds of religious doctrine as the country editor. The editors of the big dailies have each an allotted task, a certain department, but the country editor must range the wild realm, and keep trace of everything, and be everything from a crop statistician to a polemic. Scarcely a week goes by that we do not receive marked copies of papers devoted to the furtherance of some distorted religious belief, and we are supposed to read these papers in all seriousness and generosity of spirit. Because this journal professes to be "independent," some would fain fancy its editor has no right to a firm belief in eternity, even. In the past year we have received pamphlets assailing the Jesuites and pamphlets defending that order; arguments for and against the doctrine of predestination; a clever exposition of the simple and accommodating Free Love system; spiritualism, infidelity, faith cure and christian science; adventists tried to scare us into the mountains on the first of May last, and besides this we carried on a brief but very crisp discussion through Her Majesty's mails with a rabid saint of the Mormon church. Then missionary reports come to hand and tell us that while all these sects and creeds are classed as christians, still the millions who live and muntiply in heathen lands outnumber us hundreds to one. In one way and another we get outlines of the endless creeds of heathen peoples, so that the country editor is forever battling with error. The editor is seldom a saint, though a constant target to the enemy. —[Pickering News.
