

Directed Knockout Of Nine Nazi Tanks

Major Everett Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott of Lindsay, led his men in the knocking out of nine enemy tanks in Normandy, according to a dispatch of Ross Munro, Canadian Press war correspondent. A member of the reserve army before the war, Major Scott went on active service with his battery on the day war was declared. He has a brother, Bandsman Melville Scott, overseas with the 1st Division.
