TANKS FOR THE BOAT RIDE

Princess Elizabeth Wins Driving Class

King George and Queen Elizabeth saw Princess Elizabeth, driving her pony, Gipsy, in a black phaeton built for Queen Victoria, win the private driving class for the best single turnout at the Royal Windsor Horse Show.

Princess Margaret, dressed like her sister in a tweed coat and skirt and wearing a colored scarf over her hair sat as Princess Elizabeth's passenger with a top-hatted groom in the back seat.

The Duke of Beaufort presented Princess Elizabeth with an oil painting by Gwyn Jones of herself driving her Norwegian pony, with which she won at the show last year.

Cathedral Intact

Long, Hard Years

Mr. Churchill betrays something of the hard strain he has been under, as Great Britain's leader, when he reviews the long train of turbulent events since the fall of the Low Countries and France in 1940, and says: "Years have passed since then; indeed every year seems to me almost a decade."

VOICE OF THE PRESS

HE "KNEADED" IT

Someone in Chatham robbed a bread wagon. Probably an ill-bred loafer with no dough, but a lot of crust.

— Ottawa Citizen.

WHERE TO FIND 'EM

Nuts resembling pinheads are now being used on some machines. Many of them may be seen behind steering wheels.

— Peterborough Examiner.

PEACE OR PIECES

Note to the San Francisco security conference: This is the world's last chance — it must come to peace or go to pieces.

— Kitchener Record.

THERE IS STILL HOPE

Perhaps if the right measures are taken now we can win World War III before we leave Germany.

— Brandon Sun.

GOING DOWN

Against all natural precedents, the Rising Sun is now going down in the East.

Return Of Canucks Depends On Shipping

Availability of shipping is the determining factor in movement of Canadian troops home, according to 1st Canadian Army Headquarters.

While it is hoped the present plan to move about 15,000 home in June and 25,000 in each of the subsequent months can be carried out, there are so many considerations influencing the present shipping priorities that no firm official guarantees can be given that these numbers will be transported over the Atlantic month by month.

Economy Keeps Great Britain Dim
