The historian Bancroft died in Washington on Saturday at the age of 91. He was the greatest historian his continent has ever produced, making it his whole life work, and continuing it with remarkable vigor almost up to the time of his death.

Artemesia's Parliament.

The first Artemesia council meeting for 1891 was held in the Town Hall on Monday last, with the new reeve, M. Richardson, Esq., in the chair. After the declarations of qualifications had been made communications were read from Jas. H. Stuart, asking for the graveling of the road from Flesherton station to Muir's corner; from Prov. Treasurer's office re license fees; from the Mayor of Orangeville asking for a donation of five dollars to assist the committee appointed to wait upon the government with a view to securing a refund of railway bonuses; from Proton Council re building bridge over town line Artemesia and Proton; petition from A. McMullen and others asking for enlargement of S. S. No. 10; from Wm. Hogg, Toronto, the following communication:

M. Richardson, Esq., Reeve of Artemesia:

DEAR SIR,—I would beg to take the liberty through you of asking the municipal council of the township of Artemesia to agree that if I can get a pulp or paper mill started at Eugenia, all the property taken by them for such purpose, shall, for the term of twenty years, not be assessed at a higher valuation than hitherto, and all buildings, machinery, stock and money for use of such business. I may say there is a new process for making pulp for paper out of wood, just patented, and the water power, the quality of the water, and the timber of the surrounding country are all quite suitable for the purpose, and with this exemption from taxation as now asked, there would be a possibility of getting a good company to start, but without said exemption it would be hopeless to try to get a company to start. It would certainly be a gain and no loss to the township if a company will start at Eugenia on the exemption from taxes now asked. Kindly put the matter before the council at first meeting and oblige yours truly, WM. HOGG.

A petition was received from John Weber and others praying that the dog tax be not enforced in this township.

Moved by Mr. Kells, seconded by Mr. Sharp, that George Thompson and William Sharp be deputy reeves for the current year, 1891. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Sharp, seconded by Mr. McMillan, that the reeve and Mr. Kells be and are hereby appointed a committee to enquire into the sufficiency of the treasurer's securities and report thereon at next meeting of Council. Carried.

Moved by Mr. McMillan, seconded by Mr. Sharp, that John Brown get four dollars instead of two per month as indigent until 1st May. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Kells, seconded by Mr. Thompson, that the petition of John Weber and others be entertained, and that this Council take the necessary measures to prevent the levy of the dog tax. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Thompson, seconded by Mr. Kells, that this Council, having had under consideration the application of Wm. Hogg re assessment of property proposed to be utilized for purpose of establishing a paper or pulp manufactury, regards the proposition favorably, and would grant such concession for such manufactury established at Eugenia or within this municipality for the term of ten years, the statuary limit, on satisfactory guarantees being given as to amount of capital to be invested and that the industry should not conflict with any other already established in this municipality. See sec. 366 Municipal Act. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Kells, seconded by Mr. McMillan, that the petition of Archibald McMullen and others be not entertained, as the five years required by law have not expired since last action was taken. See 82 par., 2 Public School Act. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Kells, seconded by D. McMillan, that the following bills be paid: John Rutherford for stationery, $16.31; John Hazzard, collector, expense re Patrick Welch taxes, $2.80. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Kells, seconded by Mr. McMillan, that bill of election expenses for 1891 as presented by W. J. Bellamy be paid, viz. W. J. Bellamy, nomination, $3.00; W.J. Bellamy, ballot boxes, $3.50; A. Brown, Ward No. 1, $7.50; G. Warling, Ward No. 2, $7.50; W. J. Bellamy, Ward No. 3, $7.50; H. Meldrum, Ward No. 4, $7.50. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Sharp, Seconded by Mr. Thompson, that the following accts. be paid: W. H. Thurston, printing, $18.25; Alex. Brown, rent of hall, Priceville, $4.00; John Boland, commissioner Ward No. 2, $2.00; W. J. Bellamy to one quarter salary as clerk, $37.50. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Sharp, seconded by Mr. McMillan, that the reeve issue his order for this day's session of Council and indigence monthly allowance. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Sharp, seconded by Mr. Thompson, that we dispense with the February session, and that the Council adjourn, to meet on the first Monday of March. Carried.

Wodehouse Items.

From our own Correspondent.

Business is brisk in our village. Messrs. Jas. and Sam Wiley are getting in a large stock of logs of all kinds. They are doing a good business, and we appreciate their efforts to supply the public demands in all kinds of lumber.

Messrs. Best and Proctor are busily engaged putting up the building for their shingle machine. They expect to be running the mill in two weeks.

A very good delegation from this place attended the meeting of the Farmers' Institute held in Markdale on the 13th inst. They report a very enjoyable as well as profitable evening. They have no doubt but some who were there learned something about cattle which they previously had not known, especially in regard to the teeth.

The public school here is progressing finely under the management of Miss Cunningham. We believe Miss Cunningham is a first-class teacher; all are satisfied with the change so far.

Mrs. Joseph Proctor, of Caledon East, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley, of this place,

A little two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McAffee, has been seriously ill. All hopes of its recovery were given up, but we are pleased to note that it is now convalescent.

Wareham.

From our own Correspondent.

Our town is booming. Sleighing has again returned and our townsmen are all very vivid in their many different spheres of life, while our queen sits on the hill to govern them all.

The shoemaker at the junction is doing a large business in his line, but we imagine he would do still greater if he would move into town.

Mr. Geo. McMaster gave a party to some young folks one night lately, where the light fantastics were tripped till a late hour.

We, this week, have to chronicle the death of Mr. Thos. Wiggins, who passed away on January the 9th, aged 19 years and 10 months. He will be much missed. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

While I sit at my escritoire and imagine the dolour over the fiasco out west, we must heartily sympathize with the case. We refer to the third line.

Mr. S. Rich is said to be very ill. We hope soon to hear of his convalescence.

What we would like to know: First—In going to see the widow who fell in through the door? Second—Who got the G. B.

General News.

Judge Lane is ill at his home in Owen Sound and his recovery is despaired of.
