

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR LIEUT. WHITE

Several Young Men From the Cambridge St. United Church Welcomed Back to Church and Town.

At the regular morning service in Cambridge St. United Church, the Minister, Rev. J. J. Black, conducted a short memorial service in honour of the memory of Lieut. William White, who was killed overseas. Reference was made to his fine intelligence, fine ideals and

During the service Rev. Mr. Black took occasion to welcome home Sergt. W. D. Waite, Squadron Leader Bert Adams and the two Stinson boys, Harld and Fred. Flight Lieut. Ray Adams was also welcomed back to the church.

Reference of a sympathetic nature was also made regarding two Lindsay boys from the church who were recently wounded, namely Capt. Grant Ferguson and Capt. Byron Rich.

splendid character. He had been a worker in the Young People's Union and a Past President of the Semper Fidelis Class. Clever in school, he graduated from the Collegiate Institute and later from the University of Toronto in Commerce and Finance. Following training activities in different camps he enlisted with the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, with which unit he served overseas and in Italy.

According to the Minister, Lieut. White was the tenth member of Miss Flavelle's Semper Fidelis Class to pay the supreme sacrifice.

Rev. Mr. Black read two interesting letters written by Lieut. White, one to Miss Flavelle and the other an acknowledgment for the Christmas box received from the church.
