Mr. John Weber, of the Queen's valley, has a pear tree in bloom.

The family of Rev. Mr. Wells, Presbyterian minister, is expected to arrive here the latter part of this week.

Monday was cattle fair day in town, but only in name, as farmers are too busy at present to attend with cattle.

Brussels Carpet. Have you ever seen a genuine Brussels carpet at 55cts. per yd.? If not, call at M. Richardson & Co's.

It has been intimated that Mr. Hannah, of Dundalk, will have charge of No. 6 company, 31st battallion, which was left without a lieutenant by the death of the late Mr. Field.

Flesherton's old and enterprising druggist, Mr. W. Richardson, is busy opening up his stock of Christmas goods. He is starting early, and by the time Xmas arrives he may be expected to have his store pretty well filled.

If you could see you own scalp through an ordinary magnifying glass, you would be amazed at the amount of dust, dandruff, and dead skin thereon accumulated. The best and most popular preparation for cleansing the scalp is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Men's Furnishings. Desirable new goods in Neckwear, Gloves, etc. Waterproof Coats and Umbrellas at M. Richardson & Co's.

Miss Vandusen left last week to take up her abode in Chicago with her brother. Thus it is that many of our most handsome and amiable young ladies appeal to Uncle Sam for protection. Really, he ought to collect a duty on every one of them.

Mrs. W. C. Wilcox, back line west, has a magnificent flower garden judging by the gorgeous table bouguet which she kindly presented to The Advance on Wednesday. We are all fond of flowers in this institution, and the gift was highly appreciated.

I.B. Lucas, barrister, Markdale, has $10,000 private funds to lend on farm mortgages within the next few months at lowest current rates. No commissions, no delays, expenses low. Apply at office in Markdale during the week or at Dundalk office on Saturdays.

Mr. John Lyons, inspector of weights and measures, Markdale, took a dose of saltpetre in mistake for salts. The Standard says: "The old gentleman suffered severely, and was in a critical condition all day, but was much better on Wednesday, and is now out of danger."

Sallow and leaden-hued complexions soon give place to the loveliest pink-and-white, when the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is persisted in, and cosmetics entirely abondoned. Nothing can counterfeit the rosy glow of perfect health, which blesses those who use this medicine.

Dress Goods—Black Navy and Grey Serges and Estamine Cloths in new shades. M. Richardson & Co. show a large range of Dress Goods with suitable trimmings. Direct importations.

An innovation has been made in the choir of the Methodist church by the addition of a cornetist in the person of Mr. Wes. Armstrong, who added much to the the pleasure of the musical service both morning and evening Sunday last. It is intended to make this a permanent feature, and to add one or two more instruments. We consider it a very great improvement indeed, as Wes. is a polished cornetist on sacred music—he is Flesherton's Levy.

Our friend of the Stouffville Tribune, Mr. Jake Keefer, has decided to follow in the steps of his forefathers, and has taken unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Pickering, of Forest, Ont. This interesting event took place at Forest yesterday, and the young partners are expected to put in an appearance at Flesherton on their wedding "tower," as Samantha would say. The Advance wishes Mr. Keefer and his bride all the happiness possible in the limited time which this life affords.

Appreciative.

The following verses arrived by mail last week without any signature or means of discovering the author other than by the handwriting. We feel confident, however, that we have seen that before, and believe we are justified in thanking the Rev. T. Watson, of Fenella, for the kind sentiments expressed.

A WORD FROM AN OLD FRIEND.

To me, like a dear human friend,
How welcome all thy visits are;
Enlightening rays from thee extend,
Fair as the sheen of evening star.

Long have I watched thy onward course
Expecting noblest things of thee;
Seen with delight thy growing force,
Humor, and wit, and fancy free.

Ever for right thy columns speak,
Recording steps of progress made,
Telling the news each passing week
Of joy's bright beams, or sorrow's shade.

No party tool; no one set slave;
Aware of something good in all;
Do thy best work with purpose brave,
Voicing alway clear duty's call.

A unifying power be thou,
Nourish, protect each heavenborn bud,
Courage infuse to dare and do,
Endear thyself by doing good.

E. G. Fall Fair.

Large colored posters announcing the East Grey fall fair have been printed and posted up. By these it will be seen that the attractions are in advance of anything heretofore seen at any show in this county. There is no doubt whatever that the crowd will be here on Sept. 22 and 23, as it will always go where the most can be seen in the shortest space of time and at the least expense. The directors should have managed to have the fair three days this year How can they get through with all the e will be shown on the 23rd? And how can the people see all in one day? We would advise visitors to came early on Wednesday morning, as judging of stock will not be until noon, but the hall will be open, and the display there can be seen. The wonderful talking machine, Edison's phonograph, will be there, and the figures of Birchall and Benwell in wax. There will be a walk, trot, and go as you please race. The celebrated dog "Tom" will race with Thos. Paul's Indian pony, "Fariy Queen." Lady and gentlemen riders and drivers, and after seeing all in one day you will declare Flesherton exhibition is next to the Toronto show. It was noticed that negotiations were in progress looking towards the securing of an aeronant and parachute artist for the E. G. Fall show, but arrangements were not completed and the matter fell through. The attractions above noted are sufficient without the balloon.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

IS the "ideal" Hair-dressing: It restores the color to gray hair; promotes a fresh and vigorous growth; prevents the formation of dandruff; makes the hair soft and silken; and imparts a delicate but lasting perfume.

"Several months ago my hair commenced falling out, and in a few weeks my head was almost bald. I tried many remedies, but they did no good. I finally bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, after using only a part of the contents, my head was covered with a heavy growth of hair. I recommend your preparation as the best in the world."—T. Munday, Sharon Grove, Ky.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a number of years, and it has always given me satisfaction. It is an excellent dressing, prevents the hair from turning gray, insures its vigorous growth, and keeps the scalp white and clean."—Mary A. Jackson, Salem, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for promoting the growth of the hair, and think it unequaled. For restoring the hair to its original color, and for adressing, it cannot be surpassed."—Mrs. Geo. La Fever, Eaton Rapids, Mich.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a cure for dandruff."—J. W. Bowen, Editor "Enquirer," McArthur, Ohio.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past two years, and found it all it is represented to be. It restores the natural color to gray hair, causes the hair to grow freely, and keeps it soft and pliant."—Mrs. M. V. Day, Cohoes, N. Y.

"My father, at about the age of fifty, lost all the hair from the top of his head. After one month's trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor the hair began coming, and, in three months, he had a fine growth of hair of the natural color."—P. J. Cullen, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.
