NOXON BINDERS, MOWERS and DRILLS.

Can also supply you with Wilkinson Plows, Spring Tooth Harrows, all kinds. Chatham and Speight Wagons, Brantford and Gananoque Buggies. Road Carts of all descriptions, Steel Windmills, in fact everything the Farmer wants, and will not be UNDERSOLD by any agent in the County.

All goods guaranteed to do good work or no sale. Will be in Flesherton every Monday and Saturday. All correspondence sent to our address, Markdale, will be promptly attended to.

Yours truly,
W. JACKSON.

The Store on the Hill?

Beautiful May is here again. Although so much work has to be crowded into this month there is always want to be supplied. If the man or the woman of the house hasn't time to get them, remember that in this store the child will be served equally as well. We endeavor to treat everyone alike. No two prices. No shoddy goods. No light weight. But everything we sell can be relied on.

The present needs are about as follows:—Prints, Shirtings, Cottonades, Parasols, Dress Goods, Liniens, Embroideries, Gloves, Hosiery, Ribbons, etc. Also Ties, Sox, Underwear, Felt and Straw Hats, Suitings, Pantings, etc.

Also Plow-Boots, Fine Boots, Oxford Shoes, Slippers etc. Also Fresh Groceries of every kind.

We have all these as low as any living white man can sell them, and will give you equally as good value for your trade as if you plumped the cash down every time. No credit, no discount, but one price, and a low one. Bring along your Butter and Eggs and get the highest market price.

B. G. Evans.

JAS. CAVANAGH, Twp. Clerk.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

It is with feelings of regret that we have again to report the demise of another of our loved ones. Some time ago Mr. Adam Holey, jr., third son of Mr. John Holley and some others, left here to spend the summer in Dakota. Almost immediately on his arrival there he was stricken with typhoid fever and in a few days' illness sucumbed to that terrible malady. His bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire neigborhood.

Mr. Charles Gilbert runs the milk waggon on this route to the Flesherton cheese factory this season.

Mrs. Wickham, of Markdale, spent a short time renewing her acquaintance here.

Mr. T. Gilbert was very busy burning a lime kiln last week.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent

Sunday school has reopened under the superintendence of Mr. Edward Ross and an efficient staff of teachers We predict a successful term.

BORN—On Thursday May 25, the wife of George Wright, of Wareham Mills, of a son. Both mother and child are doing well.

Mrs. George Thompson, sr., is still in a serious condition and her recovery is doubtful.

Mr. Robert Thompson still remains in a doubtful condition.

Mr. Walter Taylor lost a valuable young mare and her colt recently, while several others around have lost colts.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, sr., intend travelling this summer. We believe Mr. Taylor intends taking in the World's Fair and the North-West generally, while Mrs. Taylor makes a lengthened visit with friends in Winnipeg. They left here on Wednesday. We wish them a pleasant trip.

Mr. W. J. White, who went down to the Toronto hospital, is improving rapidly and is expected home this week.

Mrs. John Kerr is also somewhat better.

Hopeville.

From our own Correspondent.

Some daring parties broke into Mr. D. K. McArthur's store on Tuesday night, or Wednesday morning. They bursted the safe open with powder and took out about $125. Mr. McArthur is trying to track the rascals, in which undertaking we hope he may be successful.

Miss Mary Bryce has returned from Hamilton very ill with the measles.

Mrs. Wm. Milner who has been visiting her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Milner, for a few weeks has returned home.

Mr. John McMillan is raising a fine barn to-day.

Little Florence Ferguson, who was so poorly nearly all winter, is now able to run and play outside.

Miss Euphemia McDonald is learning tailoring in Dundalk.

Miss Maggie McAnnel and Miss McDonald, dressmakers, have moved into the village.

Mr. David Allen has gone to Virginia again.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

The warm rains of late seemed to make almost everything grow. Of course there were exceptions.

Mr. Parker and family has moved to the third, from Mr. Madill's house.

Miss Annie Scheniman returned from Parry Sound last week.

Mr. Wm. Potts, who was in the hospital in Chicago for a number of weeks, came home to visit his mother and sister. He is yet very weak, but we hope he will improve rapidly.

Mrs. Sanford Tuck, of Markdale, spent a few days of this week with her mother, Mrs. Clark.

School was closed on Thursday and Friday of last week, as our teacher, Mr. J. L. Wood, attended the convention at Durham.

The Rev. J. W. Jones and family have moved to Mr. Guy's house.

The Rev. F. Woodger attends conference in Toronto this week.

Mrs. Little spent a few days in Flesherton last week.

Another of those sad events in the shape of death occurred on Tuesday morning of last week. The victim this time was Mrs. Kinghorn, who has been a resident of Maxwell for some time. She had been unwell for a number of months, and at last death was the conqueror. On Monday the friends were sent for, and some of them arrived in time to see her before she died. The funeral took place to the Presbyterian cemetery on Thursday at 10 o'clock. Some of the friends went home Thursday and some remained for a day.

We were going to remark that W. H. Thurston was in town on his bicycle a short time ago, but will not now as we saw in last issue about his coming over in 48 minutes.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

Messrs. A. D. S. Thurston and V. Kester, of Toronto, paid this burg a short visit lately. Glad to see the boys.

Mr. J. Cleland, M. P.P., with Mr. Clark, of Meaford, gave us a call while passing on their way to the convention at Flesherton last week.

Mr. John McFadden and daughter, of Walkerton, were guests of Mrs. Jamieson, jr., for a few days.

Mr. J. W. Whitby took the work of Rev. J. W. Waddell last Sunday.

Mr. M. R. Hammond is adding to the appearance of the town by building a dwelling house on Centre street north, where Mr. Whitby, our shoemaker, will take up his abode.

The boys are gathering home in the spring, tra la. Geo. McConnell and Arthur Ellis have returned from the timbering district near Powassan.

We were pleased to meet with our friend and school chum, Mr. A. G. McKinney, who for some time has been engaged in the hardware business in Orangeville, but is now travelling agent for the Toronto Belt Co. He gave our town a short visit last week.

Mrs. R. A. Hadley is dangerously ill and her death is looked for from day to day.

Died.
