JOS. SMITH, - - Flesherton.

WHY IS IT?

Why is it that Harrison, of Flesherton, sells so much furniture?

The answer is plain. Because the people appreciate fair dealing, and have found out that his goods and prices are right, and the quality second to none,

We do not care to sell goods that fall to pieces before they are half used, for the reason that our reputation is at stake, and we feel in honor bound to give good value to our customers, and we can afford to do it, as our expenses are small. So WE CAN LIVE AND LET LIVE.

FURNITURE REPAIRED, PICTURES FRAMED, LOUNGES UPHOLSTERED.

N. B. Undertaking carried on as usual, crape kept in stock. Residence over store, open night and day.

Yours Truly
E. HARRISON.

Come along and bring your butter and eggs, will give ——you highest price and noble weight.——

The Store on the Hill?

B. G. Evans.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The dry weather has not only been beneficial to farmers but also to the knights of valor in contracting the woodwork of wagons etc., thus necessitating the readjustment of the circular bands of the aforesaid vehicles.

The regular quarterly services of the Priceville circuit of the Methodist church will be held at the Ebenezer appointment next Sunday at 10. 30, a. m. There will be no services in Priceville.

One of our amateur (?) cyclers performed before a select, privileged and interested audience, on Saturday evening, a very intricate, difficult, dangerous, albeit graceful (?) feat. For further particulars enquire at No. 2 or 3 Kinross st., south.

Mr. E. Stevenson, of Mt. Forest, paid a visit to W. J. Blakeston's recently.

Mr. H. Ross, teacher in Kingston Business Coll ege, is spending his vacation with his parents.

Miss Gertie McLeod of O. S. Coll. Inst. is home for the holidays.

Misses Aggie and Marian Cockburn have gone to Toronto where they will reside for a time.

Mr. Alex James has gone to the lower townships for a few days outing among the farmers of that neighborhood.

Messrs. Conkey, Vair, Fisher, A. Gun, and R. Smith, all of Durham, paid our burg a flying visit recently.

Mr. E. Irwin, a reporter on one of the O. S. papers, paid a visit last week to his uncle Mr. C. C. James.

Berries are coming pretty lively now, but J. D. Brown is prepared for them as he has just received another car load of sugar.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Valentine Bell, who was lately married, is moving into our town into the residence lately vacated by Mr. McEachnie, owing to "bugs." Nevertheless Valentine will be an addition to our burg.

Mr. Little, our blacksmith, will have a cargo of salt for the patrons at Flesherton this week. He objects to be called a patron. He says the patrons ain't what they are named. Mr. Little is our township secretary and every patron should uphold his actions in the salt business.

Mr. John Blakely and Mr. G. Blakely, their wives and children, paid a visit to Maxwell, the former to Mr. Linley's and the later to Mr. Little's. John and Guy are always welcome.

Mr. Sandy McEachnie was home on Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Kerton's hogs are having their fling on the public. Their number is 13, bad ones.

Mr. Chas. Scheniman, of Powassin is home on a rustification. Charles has grown a big boy during his stay of 2 years in a lumber camp but nevertheless his parents are proud of his adventures. Charles is a good boy and everybody in our burg is glad to welcome him home.

The saddest news of our town is the death of Wm. Potts, who ever since he left the Chicago hospital, has not gained health. He passed in his checks on Sunday at 7 20, aged 24 years 7 mos.

The patrons had a load of twine delivered here. Mr. W. H. Guy, the secretary of Maxwell association, P. of I., officiated.

At the late meeting of the Patrons of Industry Mr. John Kerton was elected President, Mr. J. Alliston, Vice; Mr. W. H. Guy, Secty; Mr. F. Shears, Treas.; Mr. Spoffard, guide, etc.

Rob Roy.

From our own Correspondent.

Haying has been the order of the day, and we must say that it has been a pleasant one. The weather being everything that could be desired and a lot of fine hay has been harvested.

Crops up to present have an appearance of being good.

The Patrons of Industry are still alive yet. The twine they ordered some time ago has arrived.

The Epworth League mentioned some time ago has been commenced. It is mostly for the young, but all are cordially invited.

We hear nothing but the clatter of the milkman's waggon, but an unusual clatter was heard Friday, when by some way or other the said milkman's team became frighted and ran away, demolishing his waggon pretty bad, but no one was hurt.

Jonny has let his favorite dog (Dugal) out for instructions.

Our foot ball team is in full running order, and is well attended every Saturday evening. After the game is over each one has his road to paddle, rough or smooth. Look out, boys.

Mr. Robert McKenny has got his new buggy home. It is a dandy. We don't expect to see you drive alone, Bob.

Miss Annie Fletcher visited her parents in this place last Sunday.

Mr. Henry Buckingham, who has been ill for some time, is able to be around again.

A little difficulty has met the men who took the job on 25 side road.

Wareham.

From our own Correspondent.

Mrs. J. W. Bates and children, of Kingston are visiting with friends here.

A bevy of our fairest young ladies invaded the domains of one of our young bachelors a short time ago and spent a pleasant evening. Surely he will take the hint conveyed.

Revival services are being conducted here by Rev's. Waddell and Perry. We hope much good will be the result. Mr. Perry, our young minister, is already a favorite.

Born—On July the 27th, the wife of James Cornfield, Jr., of a daughter.

Miss Tillie White, teacher of Allanville in Michigan is spending her holidays at home.

The Misses Thornton, of Bolton, are visiting with their aunt, Mrs. Robert Cornfield.

A number of our young people drove over to Eugenia on Monday last, where a pleasant afternoon was spent.

Master Joseph Cornfield, of Toronto, was up visiting friends last week.

The measels are raging around here.

The Munro Case.

GRANTLEY, Ont., Aug. 7.—The interest in the case of Mr. Munro, of which mention was made in a despatch from here last week, rapidly increases as his improvements in health progresses. As a wise man should do, Mr. Munro did not say anything about his trial of Dodd's kidney pills for the dropsy which afflicted him, until he had found that good would result from their use. Now that he has satisfied himself and others of this, beyond the shadow of a doubt, he is loud in his praises of the remedy. In answer to the enquiries that have poured in upon him about his health, Mr. Munro answers: "I am better than I have been for three years, and the credit is due to Dodd's kidney pills." His case and others prove that these pills are, by all odds, the most wonderful remedy of the age.
