Admiral Mello has been amusing himself by bombarding Rio Janiero, in Brazil. He may be said to have produced a Mellodrama worth looking at.

Sir John Thompson's utterances at Owen Sound on the temperance question should be a matter of satisfaction to temperance people throughout this dominion. His words, though few, were very much to the point, and as follows: "If prohibition can be adopted in this country I am in sympathy with that movement." His information that the Royal Commission report will be in print by the close of the present year, is also matter of congratulation, because many people had begun to despair of ever getting it, and had about decided that the commissioners had a steady thing for life.

I manufacture Wagons, Buggies, Cutters, Sleighs; in fact everything in the carriage line. Wood and lumber taken in exchange. Kindly give me a call.
