Landlord Can Obtain Home

The following might be of some interest to landlords who have purchased homes, the information being given out by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board:

Question: I understand that landlords may apply for permission to obtain possession of their homes if they were purchased during a certain period. Would you please tell me the correct dates.

Answer: The period is between October 31, 1944, and July 25, 1945.

It's hard to believe, but in less than eight weeks the summer vaction period will have arrived.
