Epping.

From our own correspondent.

Threshing has been the order of the day around here lately. The yield is fairly good considering the small quantity of straw. Fodder will be scarce the coming winter and a good many of our farmers will be obliged to dispose of some of their stock this fall.

A number of people from this place took in the exhibition this year.

Mr. Mungo Gilray of New York state is visiting friends around here at present.

Our council is to be congratulated upon the winning of the suit, Euphrasia vs. Vickers, re the old mail road, Judge Falconbridge having given his decision in favor of the plaintiff, recently.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of this church purpose having a tent on the fair grounds at Rocklyn this fall to dispose of their wares and also to furnish lunch to hungry sight-seers.

Kimberley.

From our own Correspondent.

After the extreme heat of the last few days we Kimberleyites are getting cooled down a little with the cool breeze which blew down on Monday morning.

The Kickapoo medicine company are drawing a large number to hear them every evening. We understand they intend leaving here this week.

Miss Blackmear of Midland, who has been visiting at Mr. H. Hurd's this summer, returned home Saturday, Miss Ethel Hurd accompanying her.

Mr. Geo. Wickens and ye Editor called on friends Sunday afternoon

Mr. Gilray, Braekburn Place, Epping, supplied the Methodist pulpit Sunday evening.

Mr. Joseph Carruthers of Wodehouse has taken up his abode in Kimberley. He will learn the milling business with Mr. G. H. Walter.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

A sudden drop in beef occurred in this burg last Saturday, not in price but in bulk. A prying bovine dropped through a loft to the ground. Further particulars on application.

Quite a number of Pricevillites attended the garden party at Greenside last Friday evening. Wonder who it was that could sing, "I must finish my journey alone."

The services next Sunday in the Presbyterian church will be largely conducted by the children of the S. S.

The Rev Mr. Hartley is conducting revival meetings at the Proton appointment this week and is being assisted by the Rev. Mr. Balfour of Eugenia.

Miss Flora McMillan will instruct the juveniles of the O. D. R. school during 1896

Mr. J. D. Brown spent a few days of last week at the London Exhibition.

Mrs. Brander of Detroit is the guest of Miss Mary McAulay at present.

Mrs. Grier attended the exhibition at Owen Sound last week.

Mr. J. Brander of Whitby paid a business visit to this burg last week.

Miss Bertha James is rusticating among friends at Ebenezer at present.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Henry Tucker and family of Egremont have become residents of our village. They will be missed very much in church and Sabbath school work there, but we hope it will be our gain here. We extend a hearty welcome to Mr. T. and family.

Mr. W. Beitz of the Queen's Hotel here has moved to Durham to take possession of the Central Hotel, while Mr. J. Cairns has taken possession of the Queen's here. We wish both men every success. We welcome Mr. Cairns and family to our midst.

Never was there so many live stock put in pound before as this summer. Poor fences have been the cause. Live stock has always been a nuisance and always will be as long as they are allowed to run the roads, not forgetting the geese and hens. Women who keep such fowl in a village to bother their neighbors have less sense than the geese. Now, ladies, turn a new leaf and do away with these nuisances before next year, and we will try and get our stubborn men, as the clergyman calls them, to get pasture for our cows.

Quite a number from this part attended the funeral of the Rev. Father Casson at Dundalk last Saturday.

Mrs. S. Stewart has returned home.

Mr. W. Wood returned from King after spending a few months with friends.

Mrs. J. Egan is spending a week in Dundalk.

Mrs. McKenzie of Feversham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. Hemphill.

Master Thomas Lawrence of Meaford is visiting his parents.

Assizes.

[CONCLUDED FROM LAST WEEK.]

QUEEN VS. PEM. WHITE, WM. AND CHAS. ROY—burglary, assault and rape. Prisoners were colored men of Owen Sound. They were found guilty and sentenced to seven years in Kingston penitentiary.

CRAIG VS. BLAKELY—was an action brought by John Craig of Tara, stone mason, against Geo. Blakely, a well-to-do farmer of Amabel tp., to recover 150 days' wages for services performed as foreman for the defendant in the erection of a stone house in the season of 1894. The evidence was very contradictory. The jury gave a verdict for the plaintiff. Mackay & Hatton for plff.; Tucker & Patterson for deft.

QUEEN VS. JOHN MCKINLEY—theft The prisoner resides in Sydenham township near Bognor and was charged with having taken several articles from a number of stores in town. The crown admitted on the examination of Drs. Allan Cameron and W. G. Dow, that the prisoner was insane. The jury returned and rendered a verdict of not guilty on account of insanity. The prisoner will be held in custody during the pleasure of the Lieut. Governor. The other indictments against the prisoner were disposed off in a similar manner. G. W. Field for the Crown; Bishop & Middlebro for prisoner.

QUEEN VS. JAS. MURPHY—The prisoner was charged with having made a forcible entry upon land with a danger of a breach of the peace. By consent the case was withdrawn. G. W. Field for the Crown; O'Connor (Walkerton) for the prisoner.

HOPKINS VS. TROTTER—was an action to recover damages for injuries sustained by Miss Lizzie Hopkins on the 20th of December last, while crossing over an approach leading from Poulett street into the defendant's residence, on the ground that the same was out of repair and was a nuisance to the public. The town of Owen Sound was a party to the suit, but owing to a certain notice required by the Municipal act not having been given the town was released. A question of law came up in the case whether Mr Trotter owed any duty to the public to keep this approach in repair, and this question was reserved by the learned judge to be further considered, but in case it should be held that in law he owed a duty to the plaintiff, the question of repair or non-repair was left to the jury, and they brought in a verdict of $200. H. G. Tucker was counsel for plff, and Jas. Masson, Q. C., for the deft.

GILL VS BROWN—was an action brought by John Gill, Scope street, against G. W. Brown of Windsor, owner of the steamer Cambria to recover damages under the Workman's Compensation for Injuries Act for injuries sustained by him while that vessel was being taken into dry dock here on the third of May last, a pile of lumber falling upon him, breaking his leg and otherwise injuring him. The evidence brought out that the lumber was piled on the main deck some five feet high without any cross pieces to bind it, and when the boat took a list the lumber fell upon Gill as he was passing it while engaged at work. Owing to the lateness of the hour on Saturday when it began, it was agreed to dispense with the jury. The evidence was all put in and argument reserved to take place at an appointed day at Osgoode Hall. G. W. Patterson was counsel for the plff; R. G. Clute, Q. C., Toronto, for the deft.

TURNER VS. GUNN, was an action by John Turner of Sydenham against Angus Gunn of the same place, farmer, to recover three years and nine months wages. The defence is that he worked as a member of the family, and is entitled to nothing more than his clothing, which he got. This case was tried at last Assizes when the jury found a verdict for $180; but owing to an error in the charge of the Judge, a new trial was ordered. This case was not reached, but an order was made transferring it to the County Court, and it will be tried on the 10th of December next before Judge Creasor and a jury. Tucker & Patterson for plaintiff; Kilbourn & Kilbourn for the defendant.

MILLMAN VS. BROWN, was an action for slander brought by William Millman against William Brown, both farmers of Derby. A few days before trial the parties settled the action, the defendant paying $32 damages, the plaintiff's costs and making an ample apology. Tucker & Patterson for plaintiff; Creasor & Smith for the defendant.

An Apology.

Jas. R. Thompson, Feversham.

DEAR SIR—In reference to my conversation with you respecting the apology purporting to be signed by my son, Frederick Weldrick, which appeared in the Flesherton Advance on July 25th, 1895, I desire to state that I did not intend to charge you with having written same or with being concerned with the writing of same, and I very much regret that my remarks should be so considered.

I now withdraw any offensive remarks made by me on that occasion and apologize for having made same.

I also desire to state that I am fully convinced that you neither wrote the forged communication which appeared in the Flesherton Advance nor were in any way concerned with the writing or publication of same. JOHN WELDRICK.

Signed before W. H. Wright, barrister, this 4th day of September, 1895.

APOLOGY.

Mrs. John Crawford, Feversham.

I understand that certain statements or rumors attributed to me are in circulation and have been circulated reflecting on your character and some of the members of your family.

In reference to these rumors I desire to state that I never intended to charge you or any member of your family with any improper conduct whatever and that there is not the slightest truth in any of the statements or rumors respecting yourself or your family, and that the said rumors are false slanders.

I further state that I had no ground or reason whatever for believing or suspecting any improper conduct on your part or that of your family, and I deeply regret that any such accusations should be made against you or them. FREDERICK N. WELDRICK.

Signed before W. H. Wright, barrister, this 18th day of September, 1895.
