REPAIRING DONE AS USUAL

W. A. ARMSTRONG

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The cold, raw days of late have had a diminishing effect on the wood piles.

Light crops and numerous machines, combined with big work, will make the threshing season a short one this year. Last week Mr. James Wilson with a horse power mill threshed out 440 bushels of oats at Mr. D McArthur's in two hours and thirty minutes.

A fine straw and ensilage cutter passed through this burg last week for the "North Line Syndicate." This co. is going into business with vengeance, as they already own a fine thresher.

Magistrate Nichol was one of the judges at the Flesherton fair last week. However, it wasn't law-breakers who received the benefit of his careful decisions, but sheep.

Last Sunday was children's day in the Presbyterian church. The services were very interesting and impressive throughout. The earnest address to young men by the Rev. Mr. McLeod was one of the most practical addresses we ever listened to.

The event of the season takes place next Wednesday, namely, Priceville fall show. This show plays second fiddle to none of the local fairs, far or near. So come along and enjoy the pleasure of visiting the last but not the least exhibition of the year.

Miss Minnie McDonald of Shelburne paid a brief visit to her parents last week.

Eugenia.

From our own correspondent.

Times are still booming around Eugenia. The buildings being erected are a credit to our romantic little town.

Mr. Walker Sloan is building a pretty house. Mr. John Bowerman has also a good house in course of erection. Mr. James Linton's house will soon be finished. Mr. Charley Hopps has also put up a very nice residence and Mr. Gilliland is going to keep up with the times and is having his house plastered and renovated. Mrs. J. C. Sloan is also getting her house plastered.

Mr. Jacob Williams and bride have returned from their wedding tour. Their new house will soon be ready for moving into. We will extend a hearty welcome to Mrs. Williams to our community.

Miss Annie Beecroft is very sick at present with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mrs John Jamieson is seriously ill with a cancer on her breast.

The harvest home to be held in the Orange Hall on Wednesday night of this week is expected to be a brilliant affair. The Proton orchestra will be present. We extend a cordial welcome to all.

The bear shot some time ago by Mr. Latimer was a buster. It weighed 250 lbs. He got four gallons of tallow from it. The skin was a beautiful black.

Mr. Meldrum, our genial post master, has been rather poorly for some time past. We hope he will soon be restored to health again.

Mr. J. H. Duckett has been very sick the past week.

The veneer factory has been shut down for a few days on account of the scarcity of water. We hope to see it running again pretty soon.

Mr. Peter Munshaw will soon have his new hotel ready for moving into. Peter is a pretty good fellow. We will extend to him and his esteemed wife a hearty welcome in our midst.

Mr. John Armstrong's horse ran away one evening lately, throwing him out and breaking his democrat rather badly.

Miss Maggie Paul of Owen Sound paid a short visit to her parents last week returning this week.

McIntyre.

From our own Correspondent.

Farmers are always busy, and exceedingly busy in harvest time, consequently you will have to pardon me, Mr. Ed., for neglecting you for so long a time, but as we are threshing now and have the evenings to ourselves, I will try to det a few items which may be of some interest to the readers of your spicy little paper.

No less than three machines have been humming in our neighborhood for the past two weeks. The proprietors are Messrs. Miklam, Inkster and Scilley. Of course they all (the machines) do excellent work, but Dave's takes the lead, especially the whistle part. Our Y. P. S. C. E. which was organized over a month ago is progressing. Mr. Mills, former editor of the "Argus" and principal of the Singhampton public school, attends regularly and seems to take a deep interest in the work of the society. A public meeting was held last week and was officially conducted by Miss A. McIntyre.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean of Lakeview, who were injured by falling from a rig, are recovering.

Miss Bell of Detroit, who has been home for some time, visited her brother at Proton Station.

Miss Page of Maxwell is still visiting friends here.

The Misses Gray have returned home after an extended visit with their sister, Mrs. T. M. Guy, at Redwing.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts took in the Toronto exhibition and also visited friends in Hamilton before returning.

Miss Jessie McInnes visited her sister, Mrs Winters, at Hatherton.

The trout fishing season is over, consequently "Smuggles" long walks to Lakeview are ended, but he thinks there are as good a fish in other seas as ever was got. What think ye, Jess?

From our own Correspondent.

Quite a number from Mount Zion and vicinity took in the Toronto exhibition, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston and the Misses Robinson of Wareham, Miss Tena Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, jr., Jeremiah Taylor, Joseph Cornfield, Aleck Taylor, Miss Carrie Taylor and the Misses White, Mr. and Mrs. Love, sr., Mr. and Mrs. Hambly and Mr. Sheardown of Mount Zion.

Mr. John T. Wallace of Bracebridge, Muskoka, paid a short visit to his mother and then went on to Toronto to visit his sisters and take in the exhibition, etc.

Miss Mary Cornfield, who has been ailing for some time, is now some better and we hope soon to have her in our midst again. Dr. Carter has been in attendance.

Mrs. J. W. Burke is at present suffering from a severe attack of rheumatic pains and fever, but under the care of Dr. Scott we hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Revival services have started here by our pastor, Rev. Mr. Balfour. May much good be done.

Miss Emma McNevin has lately bought her a handsome Bell organ (cabinet) and has also succeeded in forming a music class, some of her pupils being in Maxwell.

We understand Mr. Willie Morton intends shortly to leave Mount Zion and spend the winter in Toronto. Willie will be missed by young and old here, being most highly esteemed by all who know him, and while sorry to part with him we wish him bon voyage.

Threshing is in progress here, the farmers say the yield of grain is good for the amount of straw.

Mrs. Newton Cornfield of Toronto paid a week's visit to friends here lately.

Maxwell.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Field of Ravenna spent Sunday of last week with friends in this vicity.

Meaford Road.

From our own Correspondent.

Threshing is about over for this year. Mr. Wm. Best takes the lead with the steamer.

Mr. Geo. Bowles was made happy by the arrival of a young son. George wears the name of Dad gracefully.

While Mr. Robt. Shannon was visiting his son, George, some time ago, he had the misfortune to fall from one of his horses, injuring himself so that it was necessary to call in a doctor. We are glad to learn that he is improving and was able to return to his home in Proton last week.

Mr. Robt. Pritchard of Markdale spent Sunday with his parents.

The Rev. Mr. Humphreys occupied the pulpit last Sunday in the absence of Mr. Mahan.

Weeds along railroad tracks are now killed by the electric weed killer. It consists of a car carrying a dynamo, which sends a heavy current into a sort of rake of fine wires dragging among the weeds on each side of the track. If the wires touch them the weeds are electrocuted down to the smallest rootlet. It is proposed to introduce the same system in farming.
