Eugenia.

From our own correspondent.

Deer hunting is all the go at present. Mr. Richard Parks shot a splendid one on his own farm last Friday. One was also so tame that it came up to James Campbell's house and looked in the window. If one of the other sort of dears would go and look in it would be much better. This one must have known it was a bachelor's hall.

Mr. Arthur Cooey and some other young gentlemen of Toronto are visiting at Mr. Jake Williams.

Mr. Wesley Latimer of Toronto is visiting at the parental home.

The stone and brick work on the new church is now finished and reflects great credit on the contractor, Mr. George Proctor. Everyone says it is the handsomest piece of stone work they have ever seen. The Presbyterians had a bee on Monday clearing up the refuse stone and rubbish from around the church.

Eugenia has had another visitation of fire. At midnight on Friday Mr. Peter Sherwood was awakened by the smoke. Fortunately the family was sleeping downstairs or possibly they might have been suffocated in their beds. The fire started in an upstairs apartment, which was a mass of flames. Some of the neighbors assisted in removing part of the furniture downstairs. The house and contents was fully insured.

Mr. Marcon of the veneer factory has purchased several pieces of improved machinery, which is being put into the mill this week. That is a good prospect for the future, but for the present the water is too low to make it possible to run the heavy machinery in the mill. It is something unusual to see such low water at this season of the year.

Mrs. Bell has removed to Markdale, and Miss Minnie Carr and Miss Minnie Gilliland have gone to Toronto for the winter. Miss Ella Stewart, of Flesherton, was visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Williams, last week. Miss Maggie Ferguson of Flesherton Station has been visiting with Mrs. J. R. Hogg. Mr. Adam Hislop is rather poorly at present.

Vandeleur.

From our own Correspondent.

Lovely weather. If it only continues it will be a great benefit to the farmer, as there has not been very much fall plowing done.

The Rev. Mr. Goldberg preached at Mr. Geo. Hutchins, sr., last Thursday evening.

I understand that Miss Gilray is re-engaged as teacher for the ensuing year.

Miss Sarah Sinclair gave a hallowe'en party to a number of friends last Thursday evening. A very enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. York Richardson of Chatsworth is visiting friends here. Mrs. John Hutchinson, jr., presented her husband with a son last week. Rumor says there is to be another wedding in this vicinity shortly. Mrs. Silcox of Meaford is visiting at her sisters, Mrs. Geo. Pritchard. Mrs. Pritchard visited in Meaford last week. Mrs. R. G. Warling is visiting friends in Meaford.

Kimberley

From our own Correspondent.

We are having some beautiful weather. Many are enjoying it in the bush with dog and gun. Messrs. Bell and Simpson returned home Saturday from Osprey with smiling faces and two deer, and now their friends are edjoying the catch immensely, as those gentlemen are liberal-minded. Squire Stewart and some others have gone to Muskoka on a hunting excursion.

Mr. G. H. Walter has been doing chopping in his mill by hiring an engine to run it for a few days while some of the machinery is being repaired.

Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald, old residents of this place, left on Tuesday morning for Sault Ste. Murie. Mr. J. Bell of St. Vincent visited Mr. A. B. Bell of this place last week. Mrs. Lawrence ha gone to Muskoka to spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. H. Ellis. Miss Brisa McGee returned to Toronto on Saturday. Miss Maggie Walter of Walters Falls is visiting friends here.

No service was held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning, as it was quarterly meeting service at Eugenia.

Mr. McQuillan will preach a farewell sermon at his next service here, as he is about to leave this mission.

The Rev. Mr. Graham of Shelburne took charge of the service in the English church a week ago last Sunday morning.

The Methodist people have started an Epworth League, commencing at 7.30 on Tuesday evening.

Mr. John Clark of the third line had his shingle and sawmill burned a week ago last Wednesday evening, Some of the men from here had timber there and it was also burned. The fire is supposed to have started from the engine.

Another of those pleasant events in the form of a wedding took place in the Methodist church here on Wednesday of last week, when the Rev. Legate united in holy wedlock Miss Elizabeth Jane Shier and Mr. Wm. John White. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Ida Shier, and the groom by Mr. White of Proton Station. We wish the young couple every success.

Messrs. Long, Fairey and McDonald left on Monday for Bay Mills. We are sorry to lose the boys but hope to hear of their success.

The quarterly business meeting of the Methodist church took place on Monday of this week.

Mr. Thomas Guy and little Robbie went to Ingersoll on Monday. Miss Tuck visited with Mrs. Clark this week. Mr. Walter Griffith and Miss Jane Saigeohn gave us a call last week. Mr. McNair was around last week and put a chart into No. 9. We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Joseph Allison is no better. Mr. James and Alex. Strachan left for Alliston on Monday. Mr. McKechnie of this place returned home lately from Manitoba. Miss Edith Maxwell of Singhampton has been visiting with relations in this vicinity.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The beautiful weather of the past few days was a great boon to farmers as there were thousands of bushels of turnips in the fields at the beginning of the week.

Halloween was celebrated in the old fashioned style in this burg. We wouldn't be surprised if some of the lads may yet have to "pay the piper" if the health officer gets his hands on them.

W(h)atson of man or Son of Temperance missed part of the feast last Thursday evening? Perhaps H. could give us some information on the subject, Eh, Jim!

The largest crop of turnips in this vicinity is to be found on the farm of Mr. Burnett of the south line. He has upwards of 3000 bushels of fine ones.

The members of the S. O. T. spent a very enjoyable time last Thursday evening in their division room on Kinross street. The lodge is increasing rapidly in membership.

Mr. Donald McLachlan returned from Sandhill last week where he has been working during the summer.

Mrs. Tedford of Dundalk is the guest of Mrs Greer at present.

Mr. Alex. McAulay of Cleveland is visiting his parents this week.

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. Donald Cameron is sinking very fast with that dreaded disease, consumption. Miss Fanny James paid a visit to friends in Bellwood last week. Miss Jennie James has secured a situation in a school near Wiarton. Mr. Walter Nichol will instruct the juveniles in S.S. No. 14, Egremont, for 1896.

Feversham.

From our own Correspondent.

Owing to the snow last week the roads are very muddy, but with the present nice weather farmers are getting up the turnips in good shape.

The mill here is kept very busy just now. It is running from early morning till late at night.

The patrons of the cheese factory are very much dissatisfied with the tardy way the proceeds of the last sale of cheese is coming.

Quite a number of cattle are dying from the effects of eating too much rape in this part of country.

Mrs. Palmer visited friends in Stayner for a few days last week.

Mr. Bruce of Chicago is visiting his brother, F. C., at present.

Miss Bowerman of Meaford was visiting at the Beaver last week.

Mr. J. Sayers is down at Duntroon this week building stone work. Jim gets there every time with his work.

Mr. and Mrs R. Meldrum spent Sunday at Eugenia.

Mr. T. Woods has started business in Feversham, having bought out his father in the shoemaking business here.

Mr. T. Allister spent Sunday at home here.

There is an effort being made to arrange for Mr. Legate of Maxwell to hold service here every two weeks. We hope the plan will work as a good many here are inconveniently situated for attending church.

Mr. J. Paul is having an addition put to his house this fall.
