Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

Our correspondence this week consists mainly of society items.

The following are the officers of Div. No. 348, S. O. T., for the ensuing term: P.W.P., D. G. McLean; W.P., John Simpson; W.A., Miss Agnes Bull; R.S. - Lachlan McLean; A.R.S., Miss E. Johnston; F.S., Allan McLean; Treas., Jas. Frame; Chap., Robt. McLachlan; Con., Alex. McLachlan; A.C., Miss J. McLean; I.S., Miss M. Stothart; O.S., Jno. McLeod.

The semi-annual election of officers at the C. I. took place last week with the following result: Pres., Miss M. A. Brown; Vice Pres., John McKechnie; Sec., Hugh McLean; Treas, Miss J. Cameron.

The annual meeting of the Artemesia Agricultural Society was convened on Tuesday of last week. The following gentlemen will officer the society for the coming year, viz.: Pres., Mr. D. Mc Cormack; Vice Pres., Mr. John Nichol; Sec., Mr. James Watson; Treas., Mr. James Brodie. As far as we can learn the finances of the society are in a very fair condition.

A number of Pricevillites attended the E. L. convention in Flesherton last week and were highly pleased with the day's proceedings.

The Conservatives from this vicinity attended a county meeting in Markdale last Friday.

If anyone was disturbed by that terrific howling on main street lately it will perhaps allay their troubled feelings to know that it was only some one getting one of their molars extracted. Mac. couldn't stand it and so had to clear out. A hyena couldn't hold a candle to it if we are rightly informed.

A jolly sleigh load of young people from this village paid a visit to Durham last Friday evening. They made the frosty air ring with their choruses and solos.

We were much amused at Dot's clever and laughable description of the "Robert Johns and Sary Janes" candy throwing qualities. They have no doubt at least received a well merited rebuke if not a salutary lesson. If Dot would now finish the good work so well begun by exposing many of the equally (but refined ? ? ?) ungentmanly and unladylike actions of some of the "Lilian Mauds and Chawles Algernons" at similar gatherings, it would be a great boon to chairmem in particular, and society in general. There are worse interruptions than candy throwing, which, dear knows is bad enough.

Mr. Bert Ross of Kingston is home at present on account of the very serious illness of his mother.

Proton Station.

Neilson Bros. are busily engaged at present removing the old saw mill, known as the old Carnochan sawmill, to the stand of the one which has lately been burned.

The holidays have passed very quietly in this locality owing somewhat we suppose to the general hard times. However, there are a few who believe in making the most of the present and enjoy themselves accordingly.

A very quiet, yet we trust a pleasant, event took place on Xmas eve at the residence of Mr. Binnie, the bride's father, where, by a few mystic words, Mr. Wm. Boyd and Miss Lena Binnie were made one. Immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded pair took the evening train for the city. We wish the said couple congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell spent Xmas with friends in Toronto.

Owing to inclemency of the weather the entertainment given by the Presbyterian Sunday school was not a success financially.

Mr. John Howell spent a few days last week with friends in Alliston and Mansfield.

Mr. Robert Lyons has returned home from Michigan owing to the dullness of the times there at present.

Mr. Will Turner is looking hale and hearty since his return from Peterboro.

Mrs. Thomas Sherwood is at present suffering from a very severe attack of sore throat.

Mrs. Archie Neilson is holidaying with friends in Toronto and Hamilton.

[The above items appear to have been written something like a fortnight ago. They arrived at this office on Tuesday. In the meantime where have they been? ED. ADVANCE.]

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

News rather scarce this week. Plenty of snow and cold weather. We are thankful for the good health of the people of this community. Other years at this season half of us were sick with la grippe, so we all ought to be grateful for its absence.

The factory is working this week and we hope to see it running steadily.

Our saw mills are laying in a good supply of logs so that times are pretty brisk around at present.

Mr. J. W. Heath and wife af Woodford are visiting friends at Eugenia.

Miss Sarah Pedlar and Mr. Luther Pedlar of Toronto have been visiting their parents for the past week.

Feversham.

From another Correspondent.

Death has again visited our village. This time it was Mrs. Wesley Pedlar who was taken. She was only sick about one week. All was done that loving hands and doctor's care could do, but on Thursday last she passed peacefully away. The funeral procession on Saturday was the largest ever seen in this part, there being over 130 conveyances in the procession to the cemetery in Maxwell. Her age was only 20 years and 6 months. The bereaved husband has the heartfelt sympathy of this entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Foster of Penetang are visiting with Mr. John Clinton.

Mrs. J. Palmer was visiting friends in Stayner last week.

Mrs. A. McGirr visited friends in Flesherton last week.

Mr. Martin Burk is home for a short time.

Mr. J. Madden, who has been visiting Osprey friends for a couple of weeks, has returned to his home in Chicago.

The annual meeting of Osprey Farmers' Milling Co. was held here last week. I am not able to give the names of the officers elected for the current year, but Dr. Ottewell is again president.

William Raven, who some six weeks ago eloped with Mrs. Richardson, taking a span of horses belonging to the husband of his paramour, and who was brought here from Trout Creek by P. C. Shouldice and remanded on a charge of theft, came before P. M. Spencer Saturday morning and was acquitted.—O. S. Advertiser.
