M. WILSON,
FLESHERTON MEET EMPORIUM

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

The Patrons of the ninth held a candy social at the residence of Mr. James Magee on Thursday night last. There were games and other amusements. A very pleasant evening was spent. Their lodge is in a very flourishing condition, both as regards members and finances.

Times are a little dull around Eugenia at present on account of the veneer factory being shut down, but we hope soon to see Mr. Marcon back and the mill running full time. All the other mills are laying in a good supply of logs.

Mrs. H. Fenwick has returned from Toronto somewhat improved in health.

Mrs. Beecroft of Flesherton was visiting at Mr. John Beecroft's the past week.

Mr. Thomas Smart has gone to Shell Lake to spend some time.

The annual teameeting of the Methodist Sunday school, held in the church the past week, was a success. A very good program was rendered, of speaking and vocal and instrumental music, also recitations by the school children, which reflected great credit on those who trained them for the occasion. Two recitations given by Master Elwood Genoe received great applause. A very pleasant evening was spent. The proceeds amounted to $16.

Miss Edith Carr has returned from Toronto. A large number of the young people went to the station to welcome her home, which shows they were glad to have her amongst them again.

Miss Mima Meldrum of Flesherton is visiting her parents here at present.

Feversham.

From another Correspondent.

The annual meeting of the O. F. M. Co. was held here on the 18th of the month with a good turnout of shareholders. The auditors' report showed that the Co. has made good progress for the last year. The following named were proposed as directors : J. Buckingham, J. A. Kernaghan, R. Hawton, and T. Gamey, M. P. P. When the vote was taken it was found that the old Board of Directors had all been re-elected by a good majority.

Saw logs have been delivered here in large quantities this winter, F. C. Bruce alone having about 100,000 ft. in stock.

Mrs. F. H. Heitman has been visiting friends at Honeywood for the last week.

Mrs. H. Alexander was visiting friends at Eugenia and Flesherton the week before last.

Miss Roy of Eugenia was visiting at Mr. Geo. Thompson's last week.

Mrs. W. Buckingham was visiting with friends in Erin last week, returning the first of this week.

Mrs. I. Sayers is on the sick list at present. I hope to report her better next week.

Mr. S. Parks, who has been laid up with inflamation lately, is able to be around again.

The people of Feversham have enjoyed a little episode which has occurred during the past week. A farmer who ran a rented farm near the village took French leave without settling his rent, a small matter of some $280, taking along with him all the grain and horses on the place. He left the cattle, however, and these were seized under a landlord's warrant. The truant was traced down to Mulmur, where a horse was seized and the bailiff left in possession. While the bailiff warmed himself in the house the horse was spirited away and could not be recovered, but a settlement was, it is alleged, afterwards made, a note being drawn by the delinquent's wife for $50, with good security, and in consideration of the stock left on the place the owner of the farm gave a clear receipt for the rent. On Saturday last the debtor and a number of his friends repaired to the farm he had deserted and drove off every hide and hair of the stock, and the owner of the place has now only the $50 note to show for the $280 due him. These are the facts as told to your correspondent. What the next act in the drama will be is not known, but it is awaited with interest.
