Grain crops are showing a splendid growth and give prospect for a bumper harvest. The same may be said of all kinds of fruits, including all varieties of small fruits. We never remember seeing small fruit bushes more bountifully loaded. It looks as though this was going to be a year bountiful.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church have got in touch with a large number of old Flesherton residents who were invited to give a small donation towards parsonage funds. Everybody should see the water sports in forenoon. Watch for the bills.

Big Grain Competition

New Feature of Prize List of Canadian National Exhibition

A Grain and Sheaf Competition open to the world is an added feature of this year's Prize List of the Canadian National Exhibition, which is now being distributed. The prizes in this competition are $100 and Medal each for Spring wheat, Fall wheat, barley, oats, Flint corn, Dent corn, beans and peas. All exhibits must be the product of the crop of 1913 or 1914 and must be sent through the Minister of Agriculture, Commissioner or Secretary of the Province or State, or Office in charge of an Agricultural Department. The exhibit shall consist of two bushels of grain in sack, accompanied by one sheaf of the same grain. Sheaves are not required for entries of beans and peas.

The other departments of the Prize List have been carefully revised, and the total amount to be awarded for Live Stock and other products of the farm and home is $55,000. The List has been specially framed to protect the interest of the small exhibitor.

The Grenadier Guards' Band from England will feature the music, while two concerts daily will also be given by Creatore's Band, the most famous concert band on the American Continent. The spectacle, "Babylon," is on a more magnificent scale than ever before, and the other special attractions promise to show marked improvement.

Owen Sound has thirty-five factories, employing about 2000 hands, with an annual payroll of one million dollars.

At the special meeting of the Brant Council held recently the last business connected with the previous trial of Connors vs Brant was transacted when the council paid over to the widow of the late Dan Connors, the sum of $2500. The costs which were paid by the township in connection with this law suit amounted to $1719, or in all $4219 was extracted from the township coffers. This will make a large hole in the township treasury which will be hard to fill up before next election time and it seems ridiculous that the "fighting" Reeve could not have been prevailed upon to settle at an early hearing of the case when he had the opportunity to do so for $1500 without costs.

On Friday last the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs John Watson, Sunnidale, had a narrow escape from death. The little girl who is just a year and eight months old, in some way or other got hold of some paris green and took two teaspoonfulls of it. The dose was so great that it made her violently ill, thus saving her life. We are glad to report that the little one is out of danger.—Stayner Sun.
