16 DEC. 1964 Main Street Comments

A former Lindsay boy called at the north-east corner at the Court House Tuesday to Russell and Mills Streets. confer with James Hall, EMO the early days of Lindsay the Co-ordinator for the counties first bank of Upper Canal of Victoria and Haliburton. was located in this large brid He was "Wally" Betts of To- house. The walls are reported ronto from the head ofto be over a foot and a ha fice of the Emergency Meathick. sures Organization, a son of a The first Atlantic and Pac former Grand Trunk railway fic store in Lindsay was l engineer who lived on Bond cated on Kent Street when Street. "Wally" renewed acthe Woolworth variety store quaintances with friends when now situated. One of the o attending the Kiwanis lunchiginal managers in the stor eon. He is one of three brothwas Walter Mathesin who re ers, "Stew" of Toronto and tired a few years ago after Stan of Vancouver. Inspector thirty years service. Betts said the EMO is now well

Visitors at the official openmarket at the corner of Wil-organized in the province and he also spoke highly of the work being done by the Victoria and Haliburton officer

James Hall.

ing of the new A and P superliam and Glenelg Streets, especially senior citizens recall-old red brick dwelling which stood at the corner and was laid low by the contractor was at one time the Registry Office for Victoria County. The demolition squad discovered the walls were several bricks thick. One of the first regis-ed a few historical facts. The trars was a gentleman by the name of Dunsford. In later vears when the registry office was built on Francis Street it was operated by C. D. Barr who took over the post after disposing of his interests in the "Canadian Post", where he was the editor for many

Another old and historic residence in Lindsay is located years.

Farmer's Potato Club and i recent years the 4H Grain Club, open for boys and girls Members of the Grain Clu plant and cultivate, harvest an exhibit the results of their labours at the Lindsay Central

Awards

Exhibition..

Several years ago the K wanis Club supported a Junio the Kiwanis Club were presented recently to the following 4-H club member as follows: John Murphy, Gale Johnson.

Moore, Donna Lean, Jane Graham, Bill Walker, Joe Graham Lean, Arthur Phelan.

Gilmour, Ken Gilmour, Ralph Corneil, John McMorow, Garry Lean. Bernard McMorrow.

Brown, Barry McMullen, Ted

Corley, Geo. Graham, Charlie

John Jamieson, Bill McMorrow, David Monaghan, Stephen Wayne Moore. Donald Moore, Brady, Tom Brown, Joe Jiraan,