Mrs. S. Douglas has been laid up with rheumatism for some time.

Mr. Will Kells was up on the jury last week.

Mr. Clark of Meaford visited with his daughter, Mrs. G. Pritchard, last week.

A number of young people met at Mr. Richard Douglas' last Friday evening and spent an enjoyable time.

The members of Christ's Church, Markdale, held a social at the residence of Mr. Geo. Hutchins, sr., on Tuesday of last week, at which they realized $23.

Mr. Geo. Shannon had the misfortune to lose a cow recently.

Mr. Thos. Symes and daughter from Laureston gave our burg a call last week.

Priceville.

From our own Correspondent.

The S. O. T. Div. No. 348 held their annual entertainment last Thursday evening. Mr. J. B. Brooks, G. W. P., of Toronto, was present and delivered a stirring address. A good program, consisting of singing, readings, recitations, etc., was rendered.

In last week's budget we made the unfortunate mistake of calling "sheol" a Greek word. Malcolm informs me that it is a Hebrew term. We cheerfully make the correction, and trust that no great harm has been done through our carelessness.

Last Sunday the Rev. Mr. Hartley preached a clear-cut doctrinal sermon on infant baptism from a Methodist point of view. Next Sabbath he intends to discuss the different forms of administering the aforesaid rite.

Mr. M. Riley was in the Queen City last week attending the A. O. U. W. convention as a delegate from the Priceville lodge.

Miss Emma Ferguson, who was visiting friends in Walters Falls, returned home last week.

Mrs. R. Bull of Durham was the guest of Mrs. W. J. Blakeston last week.

Mr. Alex. McDonald of Toronto is visiting with his parents.

Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Miss Baxter of Caledon is visiting with Miss Maggie Ferguson.

Mr. R. Cook was in town for a few days last week.

We are pleased to see our genial store keeper, Mr Hogarth, is able to be around again, though he still looks rather pale.

Mr. L. Legate of Greenside spent a few days last week with his son, Mr. R. P. Legate.

The revival meetings still continue. Good meetings and full house every night.

Mrr. Ashdown and Miss Allie Ashdown visited with the former's sister in Wiarton a few days last week.

The recent storm has pretty well blocked the roads around here, especially the back roads.

Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Say, Mr. Editor, to what may we attribute our report of two weeks ago finding the waste basket? However, to see results we will try again. There is at present no happenings of a very striking character on the catalogue in this town; even business is on the decline. But could we expect aught else when the general cry is hard times

Mr. A. Sherson had a very successful wood bee on Thursday of last week, and in the evening the ladies did as is customary in leap year for ladies to do, but we will not inform on that young lady and gent whom we were told were fond of solitude.

Mr. Richard Hodgins took a run over to Mount Forest during the storm and became totally blocked in thereby, causing a gloom to gather on the Hill, which we are pleased to note has disappeared since his return.

Those neglecting to attend the Orange soiree on Friday evening will without doubt miss a grand concert, as the members have spared no pains to make this the event of the season. The new hall is amply large and a credit to the organization.

A thing of beauty and a joy forever is those skunk and catskin robes.

The Herald correspondent wanted to know some time ago what Mr. J. Lockhart was going to do with his new cutter. Mr. Lookhart wishes to inform that cor. that his intentions are to engage the services of Mr. J. W. as coachman and give Mr. Fellsteadt a little drive on the milk route.

It is quite probable that we will have a new school built here next summer. Parents are now counting their children to see if there are the required number.

Mr. and Mrs. Frazer of Brampton were the guests of Mr. Wm. Lockhart recently.

Maxwell

From our own Correspondent.

The Rev. Franks of Singhampton was to preach the missionary sermon in the Methodist church a week ago last Sunday evening, but on account of the stormy weather he was not able to be present. He is going to try to be present on Sunday evening of next week.

The Misses Johnston of Collingwood are visiting friends in this vicinity

The Presbyterian people are going to have a teameeting on the 26th inst.

Mrs Akins from Artemesia gave her daughter, Mrs. F A Baker, a brief call last week.

Mr. Thos. Gamey, M. P. P., is in Toronto attending the Legislature.

Messrs. Inkster and McCallum started their shingle mill two weeks ago. They also have a crusher in the mill.

Mr. Strachan went to Toronto a week ago last Thursday.

The Farmers' Institute was held here on Thursday afternoon and evening the 27th, in the Orange Hall.

The Methodist people had a loss of part of their shed which was caused by the weight of snow on the roof. The lumber and timber was badly broken. It happened a week ago last monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Field of Ravenna visited friends in town lately.

Mr. and Mrs. Scutt from here visited friends in Owen Sound a week ago last Thursday.

The Foresters concert on the 6th was well attended after all, the night being so stormy. Proceeds amounted to $35.

Boothville

From our own Correspondent.

Now, as news is scarce it is a bad time to start corresponding, but feeling the need of some one to represent our little villa, I shall endeavor to do my best. As we are getting the postoffice at the corner we shall expect to see things more lively.

We hear old Mr. Heard is leaving our neighborhood. He intends staying with his daughter in Port Hope.

Mr Geo. Sackett of Brownville is very low at present.

Mr J A and Tom Wilson are home from Sydenham, where they were cutting wood for their uncle, who is very low at present.

Mr. J. R. Wilson is working with the shiptimber men at present. Jim is much missed around the corner.

Mr. T. Smart of Collingwood is visiting at Mr. D. McCannell's. (I wonder what A. will do when Tom goes.)

Miss Annie Wilson is home again, as her cousin, Annie Parslow, is better.

Some of the married women as well as the young men got their ears frozen last week.

Sixth Line Nottawasaga

Beautiful roads and beautiful weather are things of the past on the 6th line.
