To the Electors of Centre Grey

To the Editor—Permit me through your paper to thank the electors of Centre Grey, who supported the principles for which I stood by working and voting in the recent contest. The questions were too big to be fully understood in the short notice upon which the election was sprung.

I am not insensible of the fact that many Liberals feared that abolishing the bar, and other restrictions to lessen the evils of intemperance, might interfere with their liberties, and accordingly voted for the Conservative candidate.

Great moral issues for the lift and financial benefit of the average man are not popular when first introduced, and history shows that the task of proposing such reforms usually falls to Liberal leaders.

In conclusion let me especially thank the ministers and other splendid men who fearlessly and unselfishly explained the questions on the various platforms throughout the Riding. I also sincerely thank my faithful friends, both Conservatives and Liberals who supported me, and whose kind sympathy and appreciation of my efforts places me under a debt of gratitude to them.

Yours truly,
Geo. G. Albery.

Toronto Line North

Haying has commenced.

A number from here spent the glorious twelfth celebration in Markdale on Saturday, and report a very enjoyable time. The crowd was very large and the weather proved fine.

Miss Martin of Red Wing is visiting at Mr. Thos. Lever's.

Miss Annie Richardson has gone to visit friends at Dyer's Bay, after an extended visit at her brother Rob's here.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Cunningham and little son Jack and daughter Dorothy, of Palmerston, spent a few days with Mrs. Cunningham's sisters, Mrs. J. A. Lever and Mrs. Fred Mathewson.

The Presbyterian Sunday School held a very successful picnic on Wednesday of last week in Mr. J. A. Lever's bush.

Congratulations to Miss Clara Lever, who was successful in passing her examinations into Form 2, H. S., also to Miss Lillian Lever who met with success in her recent Entrance Examinations.

Councillor Brown is very busy these days looking after road-jobs.

Miss Carrie McGowan of Kingscote visited her friend here recently.

Caught Big Fish

The work of draining the river at Port Severn for the construction of locks in connection with the Trent Valley Canal, that has been going on for some weeks back, has revealed many strange things and discoveries have been made at different points along the river bed. Some weeks ago a coffer dam was built across the mouth of the river to hold back the water of the bay, and up the river about a mile a similar structure was placed to throw the water into another channel. Upon completion of this work the water in that section of the river between the two dams was pumped out and the bed of the river laid bare. Among the many fish that were thus entrapped the workmen found in one of the pools a sturgeon weighing upwards of two hundred pounds, which furnished a meal for the workmen in camp. That portion of the river that has been already drained presents a strange appearance at present, but within a few months a modern canal lock with well graded approaches will change all that.
