For The Advance.

Worship.

To Thee, our God, we raise
From loving hearts sincere
Glad songs of grateful praise,
And thus to Thee draw near.

Help us to worship Thee:
Our hearts with zeal inspire:
Let us Thy beauty see,
And grant our chief desire.

Thou source of boundless grace,
In Thee we live and move,
Soon shall we see Thy face
And triumph in Thy love.

Ourselves we now present
For Thee henceforth to live—
To spend and to be spent
Our all to Thee we give.

Now to us richly bless
The reading of Thy word,
And may we each possess
The Spirit of our Lord.

Our all to Thee unite:
Us with Thy fulness fill,
Be it our chief delight
To do Thy perfect will.

Colborne, Feb. 29th, 1896.

Vandeleur.

The severe cold weather of the past two weeks seems to have produced a kind of distemper, similiar to the gripp. Quite a number in this neighborhood have had an attack.

Mrs. J. C. Buchanan is very ill at present. Dr. Carter is in attendance.

Mr. Geo Hutchinson left for Toronto last week to attend the hospital.

Mrs. Thos. Kells and her daughter, Clare, returned home last week after spending some time visiting friends at Ingersoll and other points.

Mr. Wm. Stambuskie had a stock sale last week.

Mr. Thomas Shannon of Dundalk, visited with his brother George, here, last week.

The Forresters' concert, held in the hall here March the 4th, was a decided success, notwithstanding the severe cold and the state the roads were in An excellent program was rendered consisting of music by the Eugenia string band, recitations by Miss Sinclair, a song by the Misses. Johnsons and also one by Miss Annie Kells. An excellent speech by Mr. Gartung from Hamilton in the benefits of the order was very much appreciated by the audience. Proceeds $15.

Mr. Samuel Bowles is still on the sick list.

Mount Zion.

From our own Correspondent.

Misses Eliza and Tena Ross have gone to Toronto. We wish the girls success.

A wood-bee took place at Mr. Jeremiah Taylor's last Wednesday, and one at Mr. William Taylor's on Tuesday following.

Myrtle Ross, who has been laid up with rheumatic fever during the last six weeks, is now convalescent and with care and time we hope to see her as hearty as ever. Mrs. James Love, Sr., has also been on the sick list for some time, but is now recovering. Her daughter, Mrs. Crawford, of Osprey, has been waiting on her.

Mr. Alex. Taylor spent last week visiting friends in King township and Bolton village. He reports having had a good time.

Tom and George Ludlow are engaged cutting wood for Alex. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers, of Kimberley, spent Saturday with the latter's sister, Mrs. W. H. McNally, of this place. Mrs. Carruthers is well and favorably known here and we wish her and her husband a pleasant journey through life.

A post office will be opened at Mr. George Thompson's about the first of April; which will be a very convenient thing for this neighborhood, the majority having had to go to Flesherton, a distance of six or seven miles, for their mail matter.

Priceville.

From our own correspondent.

[CROWDED OUT LAST WEEK.]

The necktie social last Wednesday evening at Mr. M. Reiley's, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church, was an unqualified success. Everybody appeared to make it their business to be companionable. Of course there was some wire pulling over matching the neckties, otherwise there were some wonderfully happy coincidents. On the other hand quite a few were not so fortunate and therefore deplored their ill luck.

The politician of this burg received a tremendous dressing down the other evening from a resident in the West End. No serious results are anticipated.

A number of the member of Div. 348, S. O. T., paid a fraternal visit to R. T. of T. at Flesherton Station last Thursday evening, where they were right royally entertained.

The other day Mr. John Williamson delivered at Flesherton Station a telegraph pole which netted $10. It was a beauty, 75 ft. long. Who says a good swamp doesn't pay?

We understand that J. and D. have been booting about 60 or 70 a day lately. If such is the case it is about time they were brought before the Mayor and compelled to give bonds for the protection of shoe makers.

Mr. Jas. Tryon arrrived home last week after spending a few months in Detroit.

Mr. Robert Reiley of Proton station spent Sunday with his parents.

We are sorry to learn of the continued illness of Mr. Robt. Watters. We trust he will soon take a change for the better.

Mr. Alex McLean of South line returned from Michigan last week. Alex. reports very dull times in that part of Uncle Sam's Domains.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. M. Cameron is at present suffering very severely with an attack of sciatica.

m is indescribable in lan- The bent back, the crippled intense neuralgia pains that l by this trouble almost drive as to despair. The blessing those who have learned of rican Rheumatic Cure, which

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Geo. Sackett is able to go around again.

Miss Alice Wilson is home again.

J. R. Wilson is home at present, as the shiptimber men intend taking a rest for a while.

A sleigh load of young folks paid a very pleasant visit to Fairwell Corners the other evening.

Mr. J. Alcorn intends building a brick house this coming summer.

Mr. Chas. Ferguson is also preparing for a brick house.

Fairwell thinks there is a show of getting the post office yet, as the election has not come off.

The night school has closed. I wonder if those who attended have finished their education for practical farmers?

[The above items came to hand too late for last week.—ED.]

James Hastie of Egremont had a narrow escape from death while driving home from Durham. When crossing the railway track the up train ran into the rig he was driving, killing one horse and severely injuring the other. Mr. Hastie escaped unhurt.
