Opening the Fair, at Elmira this year is the Elmira Veteran's Band. For the first time the Fair incorporated the Jersey Cattle Parish Show which had 94 top-notch entries. Altogether this was considered to be the best of any year with record attendances and very fine entertainment supplied by the Conklin-Simmonds Show.

Among the Most Exciting Events at the fair was the knock-down-and-out event. This always supplies plenty of thrills, with the riders taking some dangerous spills. Shown above is Robert McArdle, of Woodstock, qualifying as a finalist in one of the early heats.

Fair Time Highlights

By the Ful-O-Pep Reporter

Your Ful-O-Pep reporter regrets lack of space to deal fully with all the interesting and instructive features observed at the fall fairs covered this week.

Milverton—Milverton Fall Fair had the finest baby show we have seen for some time. Registered nurses volunteered to judge the show and over thirty toddlers were entered.

The Little German Band, in attendance, put on a spirited and entertaining show, and an equally spirited performance was put on by the women, who showed fine sportsmanship in the "Cow Calling Contest."

75-Year-Old Racer, Mr. Alex Belore, of Elmira, is shown with his twenty-first racing horse. He has outlived twenty of them. Best horse of the lot, he says, was his famous Doctor Bee, with whom he started 28 races in 1922. In that year he won 22 and was never out of the money, taking in over $3,000 in prizes. A racing man for thirty years, Mr. Belore is not one to talk about "the good old days". He says that horses are much the same now as then. The records set today are mainly possible, he believes, because of the improved tracks. His experience with the drivers is that they are all good chaps and especially the young ones of today. It is interesting to note that he beat a good many of them in the 2.28 class and won his heat hands down.
