Flesherton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

The storm of Thursday last blocked the roads so that no trains got through till Sunday afternoon, while there were no mails until Monday.

Mr. Egan was in Durham last week on business.

Mrs. H. Tucker is visiting with friends in Holstein.

Miss Mary McLeod is visiting with her sister, Mrs. McMillen, of the South Line.

Mr. Jim Warling is home again to spend a few weeks with his parents here.

We hear there were no wall-flowers at the Leap Year Ball.

Master Alf. Chislett is apprenticed to Mr. Karstedt, of Flesherton. Stick to your trade, Alf.

An epidemic is going the rounds just now in the form of whooping cough, in consequence of which the attendance of little folk at school is very small.

A number of our young men expect to "coin money" during the coming season, by immigrating to different parts.

Mr. Rod. McLeod and Miss Cairns visited friends in Maple Grove last week. Reports say they had a pleasant time.

Mrs. Angus McLeod and family, formerly of this place, now of Farewell, Mich., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Black, of Durham, who is very ill.

Mr. Artley, of Markdale was in town last week. He fixed a pump for Mr. Hogarth and put in a new force pump for Mr. Legate.

What some people would like to know:

Whose face was freezing when the match was lit?

What was "L" after, when he went through the window at the pan-cake social?

What made those funny looking marks in the snow, down the Back Line last week?

Four gentlemen go for a "Drive" late one night. They go sailing along; two fat gentlemen accidentally fall out. Then what can the others do but tumble after. Wonder did they make their "Mark?"

A few evenings since the young ladies of Flesherton Station entertained the young gents of the burg and vicinity to a ball, but, as frequently occurs, one of the village swains was not invited; and, as his fairest girl, with glossy curls, was to be one of the party, placed him in an awkward dilemma. To let "Another fellow" take his Dulcinea there, would be opening the gate for the admission of his rival's affections; so, a happy thought wormed its way thro' his cranium, and he drove her to the rendezvous, and returned home, with the promise to be on hand at 4 a. m., sharp, the following morning. Morpheus outwitted Cupid this time, for the drowsy god held the smitten swain in tight embrace till 8 a. m., when, horror of horrors! the "Other fellow" had driven his inamorata to the parental home, somewhat dilapidated from the effects of an upset. Recriminations and tears were in order when they next met; but, as frequently happens, such incidents often "hurry up the cakes.

Proton Station.

From our own Correspondent.

Yes, it was a big storm, but as everyone is aware of the fact we won't make a song of it.

A very pleasant time was the result of the button social at the residence of Mr. R. Neilson's last week, given by the Sunday School scholars and others.

There passed away on Tuesday, the 17th ult. after a lingering illness of four or five years, Elizabeth Hodgins, beloved wife of Robert Hodgins. Deceased leaves a husband and a family of small children. Deep sympathy is felt for the bereaved family in their trouble.

Mr. Alfred McCauley has been engaged by Messrs Neilsons to work the old homestead this coming summer, formerly occupied by Mr. T. Stokes.

Mr. Robert Rielly, of Priceville, has opened up the second blacksmith shop in town, chiefly, we understand in the interest of Neilson Bros. The young ladies of Proton extend the hand of welcome, Bob.

Mr. Thos. Lockhart took a cutter drive to Brantford and Toronto last week. As he has not yet returned it is likely he will find abundance of snow in some places.

The Inistiage E. L. of C. E. held a very successful leap year social at the residence of Mrs. Sherson last week. The proceeds of the evening were something in advance of $14.

The Salvation Army Indians of the Rama Reserve had a very successful fight with his satanic majesty in the hall here one evening last week. We understand a retreat was made after the first grand change.

The blind orator, Prof. Moffat, delivered a lecture in the hall a short time ago. Subject unclean spirits, or government worship, which was not very interesting to a Proton audience. The Prof. was interrupted several times.

The saw-mill is again in motion. This is, we believe, the best mill erected yet on the premises.

Mrs. Thos. Wyville, who has been under the weather for some time, is recovering slowly.

Swinton Park.

From our own Correspondent.

Moving seems to be the order of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Black and family left last week for their new home in Tara.

Mr. D. Gillis has removed to Osprey, where he has purchased a farm, having disposed of the farm he formerly owned.

Mr. A. McCauly removed to the Nelson farm, Proton Station.

Mr. George Campbell has gone to reside near Priceville, taking with him a helpmate in the person of Miss Minnie McMurdo. We wish the young couple a pleasant journey through life.

One of our promising bachelors visited down country lately. Listen for the bells.

Miss M. J. Batchelor is the guest of Miss Mary Ferris.

The Misses S. and K. Ferguson of Balsam Valley were the guests of Miss Jennie Hargrave lately.

Miss Alice Bell returned home from the Queen city lately.

Miss Adeline Ferguson also returned home from the Queen city last week.

Wonder which was the most appreciated, the load that L took, or the small loaf of bread and the print of butter that was sent to feed a large crowd? Does not this remind one of feeding the thousands with barley loaves and small fishes? But we have not yet heard how many baskets of fragments were taken up.

Mr. George Black visited friends in Guelph last week

Mrs. Young from near Hamilton visited friends here lately.

At Orangeville lately Mr. Justice Ferguson gave judgment in favor of Mrs. Gertrude Kid of Toronto in her suit against the executors of her late husband, the late John Kid of Mono Mills, for one-third interest in the latter's property near Orangeville, valued at $20,000.
