enough to become members of World War Two. He joined the since that date. He served two the county council of Victoria Scottish Regiment and served only a comparatively few are in England, France, Belgium, honoured with the distinction Holland and Germany and af-After the first year in office ed to Canada in October, 1945.

Out of the hundreds of rate- Warden Cammack served are fortunate with the Canadian Army ter this lengthy service return-

Besides being busy with and antique furniture articles.

Robert Cammack's municiof becoming Warden. the desire beats in every heart to reach the high office of War- farm and agricultural matters den. This honour in the pre and the business of council, ent year belongs to Robert Warden Cammack has de-George Cammack, Reeve of veloped an interesting and the Municipality of Laxton, educational hobby. He has a Digby and Longford, who was fine collection of pioneer farm elevated to the office at the implements, antiques, utensils

January session. Honour also belongs to the people of the northern town- pal record includes a term as ships for the municipality has school trustee from 1955 to had three citizens in the of- 1957. In 1948 and 1959 he was fice of Warden, John Baolet, a member of the township

Raymond Goslin and the pre-council and he has served as sent incumbent Robert Cam- Reeve since the year 1959. He mack. The new Warden, a man of medium height and slight mild, is a mild-tempered man interested in people and a man of quiet determination. though a comparatively unknown citizen of the county. vet in seven short years he has known become to many friends, and the fact that he was elected to the position of Warden on the first ballot speaks for his popularity and his recognized worth. Warden Cammack was born near Pickering and was educated at Audley and Pickering Ontario. In 1943 he was married to Miss Ruth Thompson and they have two children. Robert Edward John and

Thomas. This tenure of office in the township council includes acclamations as Reeve from 1961 to 1965 and the culmination of

Warden Robert Cammack a fine record in public service became a director of the Lindand has served on the board years as a member of the Board of Governors of the Ross Memorial Hospital. In other county activities he served as chairman of the Board of Management of the County Home.

have many councillors County found Warden Cammack can be a persistant man with the faculty for digging in and getting the right answers. In a comparatively short time he has been able to gain the trust confidence of people.

with his elected as Warden. say Central Exhibition in 1960