Lost His Sight

Attention has been recently drawn to the sad condition of Capt. Andrews, of Toronto, who lost his sight by saving the lives of others, having rescued from drowning eighteen persons. An appeal is to be made to the government to grant him a pension, with which it is to be hoped they will comply. Unfortunately, shall we say many lose their sight, not as Capt. Andrews has done by saving a score of lives, but by the desire to save a few cents by wearing cheap or other spectacles that are of inferior material, not properly ground, or that are not the proper correction. Others injure their sight by not wearing spectacles when they need them, thinking the longer they can do without them the better, whereas it is the reverse. We recommend that you do not allow false pride or other reasons to keep you from wearing spectacles when you need them, and when you do begin make sure that you are wearing the right kind for you. There is no way of knowing this but by having your eyes properly tested and glasses given according to the needs of each eye. I have made a study of the testing of sight by improved methods, and guarantee a perfect fit at reasonable prices.

From our own Correspondent.

Although winter has lingered past his time and held on with an iron grasp, at last he is forced to resign and no one is sorry to bid him good bye. Sugar making and taffy parties are now claiming the young people's time and attention.

Mrs. Sloan, sr., and Mr. James Williams are still seriously ill.

Mrs. E. D. Legard is going this week to join her husband in Uncle Sam's domains. Her many friends here are sorry at her departure, but hope she will enjoy a happy time in her new home.

Visitors are rather scarce in our town at this time, as it would take some one with a heart like a lion to venture on the roads at present.

Mrs. David Smith has been very poorly for some time.

Mrs. Joseph Willliams has been very sick the past week.

Mr. Editor, you must excuse my poor budget this week, as news of interest is so very scarce at present. But I will pay up for this as soon as times get lively. How is it about that railway? I hope there will soon be some account of it We are waiting patiently for it.

Feversham.

The young people of Feversham held a couple of concerts last week for the purpose of raising funds to lay sidewalks in town next summer. They did not get the help from the village they deserved, as Feversham is in bad need of sidewalks, but we hope this will only be the start in the work that will be done this season.

Both mills are running full time these days as the thaw last week gave them plenty of water.

H. Heitman took a business trip to the city last week.

Geo. Whewell, while chopping in the bush one day week before last, was struck in the eye with a chip. It is feared the sight will be somewhat injured.

Mr. Sherman Colquett has secured the job of engineer in the Inkster & McCallam mill for this season. Sherman is a good man for the job.

Miss Margaret Crawford is spending a few weeks with friends in Toronto.

Mrs. John R. Lush of this place died on Monday, 13th inst., after a short illness, aged about 35 years. Deceased left a husband and three small children, for whom great sympathy is expressed in their very sad bereavement. The funeral took place on Tuesday to the Buckingham cemetery. Deceased was a staunch member of the Methodist church, and was a favorite with all.

Kimberley.

Last Friday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Carruthers was invaded by the members of the Methodist choir of which both are members. After an hour had been spent in social chat, games etc, speeches and readings were in order, and in responce to her name, Miss Lily Graham read to the genial hosts an appropriate address, and Miss Myrtle Thurston, on behalf of the choir, presented them with some beautiful spoons as a slight expression of their good wishes. Mr. Carruthers made a suitable reply, especially appreciating the spirit in which the gift was given.

The following is the address:

Mr. and Mrs. Carruthers.

DEAR FRIENDS,—For the past years our associations with you have been the most pleasant, but perhaps in no way have they been happier than in those of the choir. We are not unmindful of the cheerful, agreeable spirit which you always manifested, nor have we allowed to pass unnoticed your exemplary christian character and your devotion to our Master's cause. We wish to give to these thoughts a more tangible manifestation than that of mere words, and would therefore ask you to accept these spoons as a slight expression of our good swishes. We cherish the hope that the life of "wedded blissfulness," upon which you have so recently entered, may be replete with joy and heavenly blessings. In business we wish you prosperity in life, the consolations and guidance of the Comforter, and in death the dawn of an eternal morn resplendent with Divine glory. We trust and pray that both of you may long be spared to work in our Master's kingdom, ever shining as "beacon lights," into a world of darkness, lighting some traveller back to God. Signed on behalf of the choir.

R. S. McLaughlin of Harkaway has a sheep which gave birth to a pair of lambs, one of which weighed 10 lbs., has two bodies united, 8 legs, 3 tails, 3 heads two of which are quite natural while the third is as round as a ball. The owner of this most wonderful still born creature, we understand is going to have it stuffed and fitted up for exhibition—Cor Standard.

A church congregation down in Bayfield was dismissed most summarily under unpleasant circumstances two Sundays since. Right in the middle of the preacher's discourse there bolted into the half open door what appeared to be a black and white cat closely followed by a yellow dog. Cat and dog ran swiftly down the middle aisle to the platform. The preacher taken unawares did the natural thing kicked, at the cat, hit it, and landed it squarely in the middle of the congregation. Then it turned out that the cat was a skunk. — Delhi Vindicator.

An amendment to section 531 of the municipal act, which came into force last Tuesday, provides that notice of action must be given to the municipality by a person injured, through a defective highway in cities, towns, or incorporated villages, within seven days from the accident, instead of thirty as heretofore. As this act is now in force it may become important to any person who may be injured, in cities, towns or villages, owing to want of repair of streets or sidewalks.

In the near future Clarksburg will have its streets, dwelling houses and business places lighted by electricity. Mr. Thos. Andrews will run a wire from Thornbury; he has secured a dynamo capable of running 600 incandescent lamps. Already about sixty lights have been ordered for Clarksburg, and it is expected that in the fall and winter more will be required. The lights are so cheap that nearly every house in town will have them. One cent a night for each will be the cost.—Reflecter.

Some time ago an unfortunate couple named Dancey, started to tramp their way from Owen Sound to Montreal. The Whitby Chronicle says that when they had travelled as far as Claremont, Mrs. Dancey made a misstep in a deep horse-track, and broke one of the bones of her leg below the knee. They needed help badly, but claim that their effort to stir up sympathy for their pitiable condition failed. They say they tried to get a little help to pay their way to some hospital or gaol but failed, even the reeve of Pickering being appealed to without avail. As a last resort Dancey got a hand-sleigh and hauled his wife to Whitby, over the snow. For humanity's sake Chief Constable Calverley lodged a complaint against Mrs. Dancey for vagrancy, and Police Magistrate Harper sent her to gaol for two weeks, where she will receive good care and medical attendance. Dancey will have to figure around somehow and find a living until his wife can walk, when they will again set out on their jounrey east.

Mr. J. C. Widerholt a few days ago recevied a dog from his brother in New Hamburg, the animal being forwarded by rail. It stayed around for a couple of days, but never seemed to be at home. It was there all right on Friday morning, but that was the last seen of it, although search for it was made all over town. The mystery as to the whereabouts of the dog was solved by a post card from the New Hamburg brother, on Saturday night, which stated that the dog had come home again and that it had arrived about dark the day before. The question is, how did the dog find its way back? Evidently it had lost no time making inquiries along the way, for the distance from Walkerton to New Hamburg is 72 miles, not a bad day's journey.—Walkerton Telescope.

We would call our readers' attention to the splendid new engraving, entitled "Canada's Glory," just issued from the office of the "Farmer's Advocate," London, Ont., and Winnipeg, Man. The artist and engraver have alike excelled themselves in this great production. It represents eleven of the very finest light hores in the Dominion, each standing out so boldly from the background that they seem instinct with life and motion. To it lovers of horse-flesh will prove a most valuable possession, not only beautifying their homes, but educating the popular taste for good horse. Certainly the utmost credit is due to artists and engravers, whilst the liberality of our indispensible old friend the "Farmer's Advocate," shows the truly public spirit which has alway distinguished this admirable journal.

Michael Brennan was found guilty at Barrie of the murder of Mr. John A. Strathy, and was sentenced to be hanged on May 29.
