Notice to Farmers

Kindly take notice that it has been arranged for the delivery of oats and potatoes donated by the farmers of the County of Grey to the British Government, to be made on the 30th and 31st days of October.

Cars will be placed at all stations in or adjacent to the County of Grey so that each donator can deliver his donation right into the car at his nearest station.

Oats can be delivered into the cars loose but potatoes must be delivered in good strong bags or sacks securely sewed.

Every person that wishes to do so can make his patriotic offering on either one of the above dates whether he has been canvassed or not.

Let the donation from the County of Grey be a good one.

William Breese, Chairman, George Menzies, Secretary, Joint Committee.
