CHESTER N. LONG,
Maxwell

Death came suddenly and terribly to Mrs. David Henderson, wife of David Henderson, M. P., of Acton, on Friday. She was engaged, it is understood, in shaking a small rug or mat from the balcony of her home and in some unaccountable manner she lost her balance, and fell heavily to the ground below. She was alive when picked up by other members of the household who heard her scream, and carried into the house, but she never regained consciousness and died in a few minutes. It is understood her skull was fractured.

Notice to Creditors

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

In the matter of the Estate of William John Hazard, late of the Township of Artemesia in the County of Grey, Farmer, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to "The Trustee Act", and amendments thereto, that all creditors and others having claims against the estate of the said William John Hazard, who died on or about the twenty-fifth day of April, 1914, are required on or before the Thirty-fifth day of December 1914 to send by post prepaid or deliver to James L. McMullen, Ceylon, Ont., the Administrator of the estate of the said deceased, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims and the nature of the securities, if any, held by them.

And further take notice that after such last mentioned date the said Administrator will proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claim of which he shall then have notice, and that the said Administrator will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claim notice shall not have been received by him at the time of such distribution.
