

with FORD MOYNES

Fifty years of married bliss is not an uncommon event and yet many couples fail to reach the golden anniversary. A Diamond Wedding anniversary, however, falls to the lot of very few people.

Sixty years of wedded life is recognized as an achievement and a very important event.

The latest couple to attain the Diamond goal reside in Montreal, but for many years lived in Lindsay. Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Stoddard will be surrounded by many members of the family on June 14, the special assembly will include Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Williamson and Miss Florence Mitchell of Lindsay. Mrs. Williamson was formerly Miss Gladys Mitchell and these Mitchell's are sisters of the bride of sixty years ago, Margaret Mitchell.

The nuptial knot that linked Harry and Margaret together, three score years ago was tied by Rev. Harvey Strike then minister of Queen Street Methodist Church and the ceremony took place in the Mitchell home, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell at 82 Queen Street, the present residence of Miss Florence Mitchell.

The groom lived at Fenelon Falls came to Lindsay as a boy, and for several years was head clerk in the grocery store of T. A. Fisher at the corner of William and Peel Streets. He was a fine cornetist and was a member of the Sylvester Band and the Lindsay Citizen's band. For several years he was actively engaged in journalism in Montreal and is still an honoured member of the firm which he has been an executive of for many years.

Lindsay friends join in extending hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard on this eventful occasion.

* * *