For The Advance.

Dominion Day—1896

The summer's cloudless sky,
And beauties of July
Bid us adore
The One whose bounteous hands
Bestows on these fair lands
Gifts countless as the sands
On ocean's shore.

By unity made strong
To strive against all wrong
And forward go
May we be true and brave
While freedom's banners wave
Our country's name to save
From every foe.

On this Dominion Day
We seek that perfect way
Which never fails:
From selfish strife set free
May we most plainly see
What Canada shall be
When truth prevails.

May wisdom's fruits increase;
May righteousness and peace
Have boundless sway,
While hope's glad voice we hear
And brighter days appear
We keep with joy sincere
Dominion Day.

From Our Own Correspondent

Before this appears in print the elections will be a thing of the past and a heap of eloquence will have expended itself. However, some more enterprising news gatherers will supply your readers with the facts. It will be quite a relief when the elections are over and the people of East Grey know for sure who will represent them at Ottawa for the next term.

Last Sunday. Dr. Campbell preached his farewell sermon to a large and attentive congregation. During his three years' stay he has been recognized as a man of power. His advice and sermons have been exceedingly helpful. A large place in the esteem and love of his brethren, will be left vacant by his removal, and their prayers and good wishes will follow him to his next field of labor.

By the time this budget appears in print the ballot box will have told the tale. It is our wish that right may win the day.

Kimberley.

From our own correspondent.

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

Railway meetings and telephone meetings have been plentiful during the past week. For the railway we must wait and hope for its coming, but the telephone is now a certainty if the good people in and around Eugenia will only give a little labor by putting in the poles which are already laid on the road. It will be a great advantage to Eugenia and the surrounding country.

Every one is pleased at the Rev. Mr. Balfour being returned to Eugenia circuit for another year, as he is held in very high esteem in all his appointments.

The grasshoppers are very numerous this season and are beginning to do serious damage to the crops. Late sowed grain and turnips are suffering. The question now is, can there not be some remedy found to exterminate them. [See article elsewhere in this issue.]

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sherwood have gone to visit friends at Drew.

The hay crop in this locality will be almost a complete failure owing to the dry weather and the grasshoppers.

The strawberry crop has been good this season. A large army of pickers has reaped a very good harvest.

Times are not very dull around Eugenia. Many picnics make it rather lively.

Priceville

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Thos. Conkey, of Dundalk, came to this burg last Tuesday to cast his ballot.

Mr. George Watson, of Georgetown, came to town last week to exercise his franchise while Mr. R. McGowan went to Oakville for the same purpose and then to Priceville the same day, thus killing two birds with one stone.

Mrs. Chas. Cameron, of Durham, is the guest of Miss M. Brown at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolger paid Priceville a visit on Tuesday.

Mr. Brander, of Whitby, is visiting friends this week in the vicinity.

We once visited a public school At recess a little fellow came up and spoke to the teacher. As he turned to go down the platform, the master said: "That boy is a boy I can trust. He never failed me." We followed him with our eyes and looked at him when he took his seat after recess. He had a fine, open, manly face. We thought a good deal about the master's remark. What a character the boy had earned! He had already got what would be worth more to him than a fortune. It would be a passport into the best store in the city, and, what is better, into the confidence and respect of the whole community. We wonder if the boys know how soon they are rated by other people. Every boy in the neighborhood is known, and opinions formed of him; he who has a character whom the master can say, "I can trust him; he never failed me," will never want employment.
