Swinton Park

From Our Own Correspondent

Picnics are the order of the day. A very successful picnic was held in Hopeville on Friday. Also a union picnic of P. S. No. 7 and 12 will be held in Mr. Geo. Black's bush, Wednesday, July 1.

The Rev. Mr. Hartley preached his farewell sermon Sabbath night last. We are sorry to part with our pastor and family, who, during their stay amongst us, have won the love and esteem of many, and though we will greatly feel their loss in Christian work we trust that God will prosper them in doing His work elsewhere. We also welcome our future minister whom God has sent to labor amongst us for a time and hope that he will prosper in his work during his stay.

A sad accident happened while Mr. Hugh Wilson and wife and infant child, about three weeks old, were driving to Mr. J. McMurdo's. After reaching the gate Mr. Wilson gave Mrs. Wilson the lines to hold while he opened the gate. While shutting it the horses became frightened, running up the lane, making a short turn at the barn, which upset the rig, throwing Mrs. Wilson and child out, instantly killling the child and seriously injuring Mrs. Wilson. The funeral took place on Friday to the Latter Day Saint burying ground. The bereaved family have the deep sympathy of the community

About two weeks ago, while Mr. Adam Scarlet, his wife and child and his two sisters were driving to Mr. R. Watson's, gravel road, to attend the barn raising, he began racing with some others, which resulted in upsetting the rig, throwing them all out, seriously injuring Mrs. Scarlet and child. Miss Scarlet was also hurt but not seriously. Mrs. Scarlet and child have been under the doctor's care and are slowly recovering.

The barn raising of Mr. Jas. Knox came off Friday afternoon last. The boys worked like Turks, while the girls did their part in the waiting line of business. Mr. Richardson and L. Frook were chosen as captains, W. winning the day.

Mrs. D. McMillan and Mrs. J. McMillan are visiting friends in Euphrasia this week.

Misses Bella Ferris and Rachel Ferguson returned home from the Queen City lately.

Mr. S. R. and Miss Annie M. Parslow left last week to visit friends in Muskoka.

Mrs. John Hatherington, of Walkerton, is visiting friends and old acquaintances in and around here.

We trust that commissioner McDonald will not get his leg broken while walking on the sidewalk at the west end of the burg. Verbum sat sapienti.

The refreshing rains of late have revived the drooping spirits of farmers and amateur gardeners. We hope every grasshopper has been drowned or contracted rheumatism.

H. is so disappointed over the result of the election that he intends migrating to Uncle Sam's domains. Are you going to bring home Canadians, H.?

H. says everything looks green since the 23rd. Perhaps "green" hands at the helm have affected his visual organs.

Mr. J. D. Brown took an extensive trip on his wheel last week.

Misses Lizzie and Emma Robertson, of Toronto, are the guests of Mrs. Joseph Aussem at present.

The Rev. Mr. Hartley, who has labored faithfully on this circuit for three years, preached his farewell sermon last Sunday. Mr. Hartley was superannuated at the last Conference after thirty nine years of ministerial work. The family are moving to Palmerston this week.

Two of Mr. Allan McInnis' sons had a providential escape from death at that terrible accident in Victoria, B. C. They tried to get on the ill-fated car at the bridge but the crowd was so great they couldn't get room. They were therefore eye-witnesses of that unprecedented disaster.

Mr and Mrs. Grimes, of the Pacific Hotel, O. S., are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McRae.

The following teachers are spending their holidays at home: Misses Alice Rots, of Midland; Jenny James, of Clavering and Fanny James, of Metz.

(Rev.) Mrs. McLeod returned last week from Galt, where she has been visiting friends.

Court Vandeleur, C. O. F., joined Courts with Kimberley, Feversham and Maxwell on a picnic at Eugenia.

Some few around here have commenced haying.

A very painful accident happened at Orillia yesterday morning, whereby Mr. H. J. Kilbourn, one of Owen Sound's mostly highly respected citizens, was seriously injured. We understand that Mr. Kilbourn was in Orillia for a few days on business and was staying at a hotel, arose in his sleep, stept out of the window to the roof of the verandah and walked off the latter, falling a considerable distance. One of his arms was broken in two places and his back was injured, the extent of the latter injury not being yet known. Dr. Allan Cameron was telephoned yesterday, and in company with Mr. R. J. Doyle left here last evening for Meaford, where they took this morning's train for Orillia. We trust that Mr. Kilbourn's injuries are not so serious as reported.—O. S. Advertiser.
