Flesherton Station

From our own Correspondent.

The Boyd Bros. are progressing finely with their new elevator. Last week they had a raising, and though the timbers were very heavy it went together fine. When finished it will be a credit to the town. The men were treated to a grand supper after their day's work.

We understand the Rev. Goldberg has postponed his services until fall on account of the busy season just coming in. We will be pleased to welcome him back when that time comes.

Mr. S. McFayden has moved into Town.

Mr. Thompson, we are glad to hear, is improving a little. It is to be hoped there will soon be a marked change for the better.

Mr. McGill spent a day in the city this week.

Mr. Coleridge of Watford and Mrs. Coleridge of Greenside were the guests of Mrs. Legate a few days last week.

Miss Clara Cook returned to her home in Toronto on Saturday after spending a very pleasant week with friends around Town.

Mr. Chislett is away this week at his farm in Osprey.

Mr. Jas. Ashdown, Jr., returned Friday last from Parkdale, where he has been for the past month filling a vacancy in one of the head offices of the C. P. R. He left on Monday evening for Galt, where he has secured a permanent position.

Vandeleur

From our own Correspondent.

Mrs. York Richardson of Chatsworth is visiting with her father, Mr. R. Warling.

Mr. Dan Miller of Wiarton visited friends here recently.

Miss Tillie McGee, who has been living in Toronto for some time, is home.

Mr. Samuel Carson from Tyrone spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Samuel Gilbert, last week.

The Cheeseville junior baseball club played a friendly game with the Vandeleur juniors on the grounds of the latter. The score was 15 to 16 in favor of Vandeleur and one inning to spare.

Markdale Sunday school joined the Meaford Road Methodist Sunday school in a picnic on the school grounds here on Wednesday, 8th inst. The day was beautiful and a large number were present. The principle feature was a game of baseball between the Flesherton and Vandeleur boys, which resulted in a victory for the latter. There was also a game between the Markdale and Vandeleur juniors, score 20 to 27 in favor of Markdale.

Eugenia.

From our own correspondent.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell recently and claimed as its victim their little daughter, Ettie, a bright, sweet little girl of six years. Her sorrowing parents have the sympathy of the whole community in the hour of sorrow. A large number of friends followed her remains to the Orange Valley burying ground, where Rev. Mr. Wells officiated.

Now she shines in the light of God,
His likeness stamps her brow;
Through the valley of death her feet hath trod,
She reigns in glory now.

In that bright world above,
Where parting is not known,
A long eternity she'll spend
Around her Father's throne.

Mr. H. M. Bowerman has removed to his handsome new residence across the river.

Mrs. Will Purvis of Toronto, is visiting at Mr. Wm. Purvis'.

Master Willie and Miss Mary Purvis of Toronto are guests of their aunt, Mrs. H. M. Bowerman.

Messrs. Tom and John Fenwick have gone to Mayfield for the harvest.

Mrs. Gerow of Brougham visited her nephew, Mr. P. Munshaw of the Eugenia House, recently.

Miss Maggie Paul, Flesherton, spent a week or so with her parents lately.

Robert White drove through to Acton via Orangeville and reports an enjoyable drive and visit.

Miss Mary Morton, accompanied by her little nephew and niece, Willie and Polly Orr, Toronto, are spending their holidays with Mrs. Morton.

The greater part of the people here celebrated the Twelfth at Maxwell.

The farmers are now busy haying, but the crop being light will be easily gathered.

Priceville

From our own Correspondent.

Since our last communication the king of terrors has entered the precincts of this village, taking with him a respected resident, in the person of Mr. James Cameron, whose demise occurred on July 11. In the death of Mr. Cameron Priceville lost a good citizen and a kind friend, and the Presbyterian church an unassuming and consistent member. The family have the deep sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Dr. Brander left for her home in Whitby last Monday. During Miss Brander's stay among us she made many friends who regret her departure and wish her much happiness in her future home. The Doctor will be greatly missed in the Epworth League, in which she always took a prominent part. Dr. Boyle of Toronto has assumed her practice.

Our cattle fair will evidently soon be a thing of the past. Last Monday a number of animals was offered for sale, but as far as we can learn not a head changed hands.

The fine rains at the beginning of the week will have a tendency to spoil small potatoes and short grain.

Miss Fanny James is spending part of her holidays among friends in Woodbridge

Miss Grace Johnston of Dyers' Bay is at present the guest of Miss M. Brown.

Misses Bertha and Annie James are visiting friends in Woodstock and Palmerston respectively.

Miss Jennie Conkey of Dundalk is paying a visit to friends in this burg.

Mr. Robert Riley left for Parry Sound last week. We trust he will be successful in securing employment.

Mr. Geo. Tryon has been having a few ups and downs lately, but not in a commercial sense. He has purchased a bicycle, with the usual result for a day or two.

Messrs. R. Grier and J. McLeod are home from the O. S. Collegiate. They wrote on the junior leaving exam. We trust they will succeed.
