AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

"Several years ago, I caught a severe cold, attended with a terrible cough that allowed me no rest, either day or night. The doctors, after working over me to the best of their ability, pronounced my case hopeless, and said they could do no more for me. A friend, learning of my trouble, sent me a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which I began to take, and very soon I was greatly relieved. By the time I had used the whole bottle, I was completely cured. I have never had much of a cough since that time, and I firmly believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—W. H. WARD, 8 Quincy Ave., Lowell, Mass.

Merit Rewarded and Patronage Appreciated

The directors of the Western Fair, London, are the proudest set of men in this country, and feel that their efforts have been appreciated by the people of Ontario and adjoining States. There appears to be greater things still in store for them. The new live stock buildings they claim to be the best on the continent for exhibition purposes, being built from plans carefully prepared after visiting the principal fairs of America. They are so arranged that visitors can start at the main building and go the entire rounds, we might say, under cover, and it will make little or no difference whether it rains or not after you once get there. This expenditure of money will no doubt be a big drawing card, and increase both the exhibits and patrons this year.

Notwithstanding this great outlay the prize list has been increased some with the understanding that next year will find considerable advance in this direction. Pawnee Bill's Wild West and Mexican Hippodrome has been engaged and will make a first class special feature, being one of, if not the very best, fair attraction in America at present. Sie Hassen Ben Ali's Moorish Acrobats are also going to be there, and others are being arranged for. Together they will make a rousing day's sport, and fill the new double decked grand stand to its utmost capacity. There is no place one can get as much value for his money as at the fair; let there be a large delegation from this neighborhood.

County and District

James Lynn of Caughnawaga captured two white squirrels.

John Marlatt, Shelburne, jumped 20 feet off a frame building and broke some bones in his ankle.

Cows are devastating Chatsworth gardens. This town is not the only one to suffer in this respect.

H. W. Croker, a Barnardo boy aged 13, was sent to jail at Owen Sound for thirteen days for stealing $16 from a Sydenham farmer.

Vanstone's dry goods store, Owen Sound, caught fire Saturday evening. The flames were extinguished but $5,000 damage was done by fire, water and smoke.

James Mullen of Princeton, Ont., was bitten by a huge rattlesnake. He cut out a piece of the flesh and took stimulants, which saved his life. The reptile was killed and measured 57 in. long and 5 inches in circumference. It had 8 rattles.

Miss Campbell, of Riverside, near Teeswater, lost her watch. Peter Besseau found it, but denied the fact. He started for Regina, but he was arrested in Toronto, and taken back. Sandy Symons, J. P., committed him for trial and Judge Klein sentenced him to three months in jail.

A cottager at Stony lake had an exciting experience lately. While lying on the grass a black snake ran up his pantaloons leg. One can only imagine the howl that escaped the gentleman when he felt the clammy thing. In his ensuing gymnastic exercise the snake dropped out and was eventually killed by a friend of the exhausted victim.

A cynic says: Drink, and the gang goes with you; swear off, and you go alone; for the barroom bum who drinks your rum has a quenchless thirst of his own. Feast, and your friends are many; fast, and they cut you dead; they'll not get mad if you treat them bad so long as their stomachs are fed.

An exchange says that every newspaper treasures up in its memory the names of its friends and its enemies. It seldom if ever overlooks an opportunity to assist the former, but never goes out of its way to boost the latter. Human nature is pretty much the same everywhere. People who show the newspaper man kindness never made a better investment or one that more surely pays them a hundred fold, sooner or later. As has been truly said there comes a time in the life of every man when a word said by a newspaper either makes or unmakes the individual mentioned.

Henry William Croker was before the police Magistrate at Owen Sound on remand, charged with stealing $16 from a farmer in Sydenham. He had been living with Miss Findlay and ran away previous to her receiving the late young Green, for contributing to whose death she is now serving a year's imprisonment. It is alleged that he afterwards returned and stole the dead boy's clothes, went down to Brooke and crossed on the ice to Sydenham, where he hired with a farmer, and finding an opportunity stole the $16 and left. He was found at Parry Sound and taken to Owen Sound by a constable, when the magistrate remanded him and asked the Children's Aid Society to take him in charge. They, however, declined on the ground that he was under the guardianship of the Barnardo home. He was again remanded and the Barnardo authorities communicated with, requesting that they take him back.
