Boothville

From our own Correspondent.

A great rain storm passed over our burg last Wednesday. No damage was done.

Mr. R. J. Wilson, who was working with the shiptimber men, is home again.

We congratulate Miss Phœbie Moody and Mr. Willie Wilson on their success in the recent entrance examination, Miss Moody taking 548 marks and Master Wilson 501. This also makes a very creditable showing for the efficient management of our teacher, Mr. Nichol.

Mr. Peter Moody had a logging bee on Thursday. At night the boys enjoyed themselves keeping time to the violin.

In spite of the rain Mr. J. Campbell got his implement building raised.

Miss Alice and Mr. Willie Wilson visited a few days with friends near Durham.

Mr. F. and Miss S. Coleridge literally paid a flying visit per bicycle to Miss Marshall last week.

Swinton Park

From our own Correspondent

Haying is ended, and in general the crop turned out good.

A number of farmers have commenced harvest. Fall wheat is an excellent crop this season.

The Union S.S. picnic held in Wm. Aldcorn's bush on Tuesday of last week was a grand success. A very large crowd gathered to spend the afternoon, which was very fine and suitable for the occasion. The program and amusements were highly appreciated. Everybody seemed to look pleased and happy.

Rev. Mr. Patterson preached his farewell sermon in the Presbyterian church Sunday before last. He gave up the work here on account of failure of health.

Rev. Mr. Brown of Toronto occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sabbath last.

We are glad to learn that Miss Mary Ferris, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is able to be up again.

We are also glad to know that Miss Adeline Ferguson is recovering from her late illness.

A number of the young people here took in the concert at Dromore Thursday night last and report a good time.

Messrs. Atcheson and Matthew Ferris of Euphrasia are visiting friends here.

Since our last writing Mr. W. Broughton raised the skeleton of a fine barn.

Mr. Hugh Wilson is busy making preparations for the erection of a new sawmill.

Epping

From our own correspondent.

Harvest is well under way and the farmers are busy. Some of them have even threshed fall wheat. The yield is reported not to be more than average.

Miss Edith Stewart, of Thornbury, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Welch.

A number of Epping people attended the Quarterly services at Mount Zion Sunday morning.

It appears we are going to be supplied with a junior minister after all, a Mr. Sinclair. He will preach at Epping Sunday evening next.

Master Rob Douglas, of Galt, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Mathewson.

Maxwell

From our own correspondent.

Mr. Monday, from Illinois, was visiting his aunt, Mrs. Long.

We were much pleased to see our former teacher, Mr. J. L. Wood, in town last week. He has a very warm corner in the hearts of the children here with whom he labored so earnestly, and with such good success for nearly six years. He is the same jolly fellow as usual, and always has a pleasant word for everyone. He is at present taking some physical exercise at harvesting and intends remaing at such until after the fall work in order to have a share of the fresh air and a mental rest. Although he has been urged to take two different schools, yet he does not intend to enter upon the active work of teaching until '97. He is yet undecided whether to enter the University to study for the B. A. or to teach, but thinks he will take a school during '97.

There was a business meeting in connection with St. Mary's church, two weeks ago last Monday evening.

The Misses Strachan spent Sunday lately with friends near Singhamption.

Mr. C. M. Field spent a few days in Thornbury lately.

Some of our young folks attended the party at Mr. W. P. Crossley's, Flesherton, two weeks ago last Friday evening.

Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Field visited friends in Ravenna last week.

The Messrs. Scutt and Heron shingled the roof of the Rev. Mr. Legate's stable lately.

Mr. Thos. Hamblin moved into the English church rectory last week.

Miss Lizzie Little was spending a few days of last week in Flesherton.

Mr. Robert Hudson and daughter, from North Carolina, spent a few days with the Rev. Mr. Hudson.

A number of our young folks (sr.) went to Eugenia a week ago last Saturday for a picnic.

Mr. C. Long, Miss L. Long and Miss T. Bemrose spent last Sunday in New England.

The English church people intend to have a garden party on Thursday in Mrs. Long's grove.

Some of our young ladies and gents (jr.) went to Eugenia last Saturday for a picnic.

Miss Long has resigned her position as being postmistress, Mr. Robert Heron takes charge of the office.

Priceville

From our own Correspondent.

Harvesting was in full swing in Glenelg last week. It is not often that oats and peas are cut in July in this neighborhood.

Last week Postoffice Inspector Hopkirk of Stratford transferred the P. O. from Miss Brown's to Mr. John McArthur's. Miss Chislett of Flesherton Station is initiating our new postmaster into the mysteries of the business.

The E. L. of C. E. intend holding a garden party on Friday (to morrow) evening on the lawn of the Methodist parsonage. See advt. in local columns for particulars.

Last week we omitted to mention in our items that Miss Aggie Bull has resigned her position as teacher in our public school, to take a situation in the Durham Model School. Miss Bull was one of the best teachers Priceville ever had, and great regret is expressed on all sides over her departure.

Wednesday of last week was the day set apart for the Presbyterian Sabbath school picnic, but on account of the heavy rains on that date the affair took place next day, and was a success, both in point of numbers and enjoyment. The cakes and pies disappeared as if by magic. It takes juveniles to get rid of provisions, and older people, too, when it comes to pies, which, by the way, were of excellent quality. Of course your reporter ought to know.

The trustees are making commendable improvements in our public school. The furnace is being rearranged this week.

A fine wedding party drove into our town last Thursday, giving our usually quiet burg a touch of liveliness for the time being. The contracting parties were Mr. Angus Black and Miss Keeland. We wish them much joy.

Mr. Hector McLean is busily engaged bricking his house in a very neat and attractive manner. It will be a fine residence when completed. What next?

The quarterly meeting services of the Priceville circuit were held at this appointment last Sunday. There was a large attendance.

Messrs. S. Easton and T. Collinson of Owen Sound were the guests of Mr. Walter Nichol last week.

Misses Katie McKechnie and Mary McAulay and Mr. Peter McKechnie visited friends in Port Elgin last week.

Mr. D. McKechnie of Georgetown, who was visiting friends in this vicinity, was suddenly called home last week by a telegram containing the sad news that his wife was seriously ill. Mrs. McKechnie is a daughter of Mr. Wm. Watson, sr., who, with his wife, are in Georgetown at present.

O. S. Advertiser: Last Friday an eloping couple came to town from Paisley. They visited Chesley on the way here, where a rig was hired, and where, it is said, the gentleman left some matters unsettled. Friday night Constable Gray arrived and located the pair at one of the hotels, returning to Chesley Saturday morning, where the gentleman was obliged to settle his accounts. He came back to Owen Sound, however, where he joined his paramour, and they have since left for the Sault. Both of the parties are married and leave large families at home.
