From our own Correspondent

The cool weather at present is a pleasant change from the extreme heat of the past two weeks. Harvesting will be much more easy work, now that it has become cooler.

The Rev. Mr. Harrison, of Dundalk, preached to the Presbyterians on Sabbath in the Orange Hall to a large congregation.

Mr. Bert Armstrong, of Flesherton, preached in the Methodist church in Mr. Balfour's absence. Every one was pleased with his discourse.

Mrs. Purvis, of Toronto, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. M. Bowerman, at present.

Mr. F. T. Carr has placed a new waterwheel and a new saw in his sawmill, and is now running night and day.

The case of John Britton, the poor, homeless, friendless orphan boy, is a rather said one. He was turned out of the hospital in a helpless condition because there was no one to bear his individual expenses. What, I would like to ask, because of the grants of money given by the County Council if they are not intended to cover such cases as his? This is the first case ever sent from Artemesia and we pay our share of the county grant. Is this township to derive no return for its philanthropy? Turned out of hospital and sent to jail! This is Christian treatment in a so-called Christian land with a vengeance.

Priceville

From our own Correspondent.

In a recent letter to his brother Mr. Sidney Blakeston, who is working on the C. P. R. near Revelstoke, B. C., says that in July a great deal of damage was done by floods but now bush fires are rampant. While he and others were fixing a bridge at Twin Butte a large bush fire reached that station and consumed nearly all the houses near it. As it is down grade from Twin Butte to Revelstoke and there being no engine, the bridgemen, to save the cars, started them down grade with a claw bar, and not a whit too soon, as the fire followed them closely for nearly five miles, destroying four or five bridges. Mr. B. likes the country and climate so far. As for the mountain scenery, he says that it is indescribable. His first work in that province was on a bridge over the Columbia 75 ft. high and a mile long.

The Rev. Mr. Dodds, a retured missionary from Mexico, is expected to lecture in the Presbyterian church next week. As we have heard such glowing accounts of this missionary we trust that he will favor us with his presence.

School re-opened on Monday with a very light attendance, especially in the senior department. Miss Derby of Durham has charge of the junior room.

The following item makes us think of old times. Last Monday Mr. D. McArthur cradled 3 acres in less than 7 hours. How is that for an old man of 63 years?

The monthly cattle fair has come and gone again with the usual result, viz: few cattle and fewer buyers. It is going to die a natural death.

Farmers have hardly time to say "good day" at present excepting when it rains. The harvest came in with a vengeance this year, but binders soon make short work of it.

Some medicine men struck our berg on Fair Day with such a burst of oratory that it is a wonder our M. D.'s didn't grab their medicine kits and strike for fresh fields and pastures new. Just think of it! A box of catarrh cure and a dollar bill for 85c and galores of etc. thrown in besides. Shades!

Miss Bella McLachlan, of Buffalo, is home on a visit.

Mrs. Lavigne, of Detroit, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McAulay.

Mr. Robert McLachlan arrived home from Illinois last week.
