A meeting of the Eugenia Presbyterian Congregation was held in the Orange Hall on Friday evening. Mr. Madill acted as chairman and Mr. Hogg as secretary. A resolution was passed expressing the sincere regret which all feel at the resignation of their pastor, the Rev. Mr. Wells, who for the past five years worked so faithfully among them. O. S. Times: Last Sunday, shortly after midnight, Murphy's sawmills at Murphy's siding, about five miles from here, were struck by lightning, which started the mills on fire. The mills, a million and a half feet of sawn lumber, numerous logs, ties and slabs, also a boarding house, were totally destroyed. About 100 yards of Grand Trunk track were burnt out. Eight cars which were in danger were pushed to the main line and saved. Loss, in the neighborhood of $25,000; insured for $7000.
