THIS & THAT.

News, What the People Say, and What the Newspapers Say.

Several of the local papers have commented on our article, entitled,—"The Editor's Dream," which appeared in our issue of the week before last. The Mt. Forest Confederate made a miserable attempt at a joke on the head of it. We hope its readers will survive the effects of such a sickly effort. When the Editor of the Confederate attempts to pose as a critic, (that does seem to be his hobby) he puts his "foot in his mouth"—which is evidently very capacious—and exposes himself to the ridicule of the public.——The Durham Chronicle man hit the nail on the head in his remarks relative to our suppositious dream. The Chronicle and ADVANCE have had some hot discussions in the past, but that does not prevent either paper giving credit where credit is due; and Jenkins is not the man to allow little differences of opinion to prejudice him against any one.——The Dominion Parliament meets at Ottawa on the 17th of January next.——The Thornbury Standard says Phelps will be elected M. P. P, for West Simcoe. Is this foreknowledge, foreordination, or predestination, or what is it?——The Entrance Examination takes place at Collingwood on the 20th and 21st of this month.——We did not get the Stayner Sun of the week before last. How vas dot mine prudder?——Mr. W. A. Brown, watchmaker and jeweller, Markdale, keeps really a first-class stock of silver and electro-plated ware, gold wedding rings, and everything in his line. See his new advt. in our next issue.——We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Brady, wife of the Editor of the Collingwood Enterprise. The sad and unexpected event occurred on Sunday before last, after a very short illness. Deceased was married to Mr. Brady at Caledon East scarcely a year ago, and was only nineteen years old when she died. Mr. Brady has our heartfelt sympathy in his terrible bereavement.——Subscribers in arrears for the ADVANCE are given until the 20th inst. to pay up—one week longer than we had first intended.——Mr. W. H. Campaigne shot a deer (buck) on Wednesday which weighed 307 pounds. Campaigne's repeating rifle is hard on the deers.——Did you see the fine display of Christmas presents at Richardson's Drug Store? It cannot be beaten.

AN AFFLICTED CLERGYMAN.—The Rev. Wm. Stout, an English clergyman, of Wiarton, was for 23 years a terrible sufferer with Scrofulous Abscesses, which the best medical skill failed to cure. The internal and external use of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him, and for nearly three years he remained hale and hearty.

HE SPEAKS FROM EXPERIENCE.—R. N. Wheeler, of Everton, some six years ago was attacked with a severe form of inflammation of the lungs, leaving him with a severe cough. He speaks highly of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which cured him, the complaint not having troubled him since.

Several letters and some poetry unavoidably crowded out of this issue.

A CURE FOR SORE THROAT.—Mrs. Wm Allen, of Acton, speaks highly of Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a household remedy for colds, sore throat, stiff neck, croup, etc., as well as for burns, scalds, and other injuries of common occurence in every family.

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.

FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 28, 1882.

"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the inclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully,

HIRAM PHILLIPS."

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

THOMAS DUNCAN,
Tailor, - - - Flesherton.

"Hello, Pat! where are you going to this fine morning?"

"Och, now Phil me b'bye is that yourself; sure yer not afther callin this a foine mornin?"

"Why to be sure it a fine morning—good sleighing, and not a breath of air—why what under the sun would you call it, if not a fine morning?"

"Sure thin, it may be a fine mornin; but be the same token its a moighty cowld one til my way ov thinkin."

"Well, it is cold, but where under the sun are you going to in such a hurry—nobody sick at home, I hope?"

"No; there's nobody sick, except Mike's got the hoopin cough, and Biddy's got the roomatz, an' Patsy cut his fut wid a broadaxe, an'——"

"Christopher Columbus! I should say you'll be going into the hospital business if things keep on like that. But, by the way, you didn't tell me where you were going?"

"Och, now, where shud I be goin, but til TOMMY DUNCAN'S the tailors beyant til get meself a new shute av clothes for the cowld weather."

"Why, Pat, that's just where I am going; we'll keep each other company."
