THE social held at Mr. Edward Rutledge's last Wednesday was a decided success. Rev. J. W. Savage gave a short account of his trip to Europe. The younger portion of the crowd amused themselves with singing and games. All seemed happy. The company dispersed about eleven o'clock, leaving the Ladies Aid Society richer about $13. The next social of the series will be held in Dufferin Hall, a week from next Tuesday

We clip the following from the Corvallis "Gazette" Oregon, as the groom was a former resident of Markdale, and his many friends will be pleased to know that Charlie has been, and gone, and done it. "We had the pleasure of being present at the marriage of A. C. Ewart and Miss Nettie Chase at the residence of Mr. George Tucker in this city on last Wedensday evening. The ceremony was preformed by H. P. Dunning and took place at 8 o'clock. A large number of guests were in attendance and a number of costly presents, indicating the high esteem in which the contracting parties were held by their numerous friends. This wedding was one of the social events of the season and highly enjoyed by all who where present; the bride was handsome, and Charlie—well, he was just as happy as mortal man could be under the circumstances. We join with many others in wishing the happy couple a long life of perfect happiness.

SURPRISE—On Saturdy evening, the Teacher and superintendent of Salem Sabbith School, with there wives, surprised their colleague, Mr. Joseph Pedlar, by taking possession of his domicile. Soon the ladies had the tables groaning under an abundance of tea and tea cakes of a superior quality. After tea had been disposed of, and all comfortably seated, the superintendent of the School Presented Mrs. Pedlar with a handsome pocket Bible, with the following inscription: —"Presented to Mrs Joseph Pedlar by a few friends, as a mark of their appreciation of valnable serveies rendered by her to Salem Sabbath School." With pleasant chat, songs and instrumental music, a very happy evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Pedlar and family did their utmost to make their guests happy, and this evening will long be remembered as one little spot in which memory loves to dwell.
