A Brooklyn man answering a New York advertisement, 'How to win at Poker,' received the following reply: 'Hold four aces, or don't poke.'

A WISE DEACON.—Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visiting us so often."

"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy, I used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and saved the doctor bills. Three dollars worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time. I'll warrant you it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time."

"Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter."

'One half the world don't know how the other half live,' exclaimed a gossiping woman. 'O, well,' said her neighbor, 'don't worry about it; it isn't your fault if they don't.

When he came home tipsy he told his wife he had been out sherrynading.

A MATCHLESS MEDICINE.

The cooling, cleansing, soothing and healing properties of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry render it the best remedy in the world for all forms of bowel complaints, sickness of the stomach, cramps, cholera morbus and dysentery. Purely vegetable, and always reliable.

A story goes the rounds that in Arkansas waters produce an intoxicating effect and taste like apple brandy. It is spoken of as the popular summer resort of the future.

A Pittsburgh man has invented a cannon that will 'hit a barn door five miles away.' Would it not be less expensive to have a smaller cannon, and haul it up within fifty yards of the barn door? or carry the barn door within fifty yards of the cannon?

IT NEVER FAILS.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is an unfailing remedy for all kinds of bowel complaint.

'If you grasp a rattlesnake firmly about the neck it cannot hurt you, says a western paper. Keeping a block ahead of the snake is also a good scheme.

GRANDMOTHER

Used to say, "Boys, if your blood is out of order try Burdock tea;" and they had to dig the Burdock and boil it down in kettles, making a nasty smelling decoction; now you get all the curative properties put up in a palative form in Burdock Blood Bitters. Price $ 1.00, trial size 10 cents.

A learned writer says that 'heaven keeps our light burning while we sleep.' Well, it does look that way when the figures on a gas bill stare the average citizen in the face.

GET THE BEST.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the best, most prompt and safest cure for Cholera Morbus—Dysentery—Sick Stomach—Cramps—Cholic and Cholera Infantum that has yet been discovered. Its popularity is undimmed by age. All medicine dealers sell it.

The Intercolonial Geographical congress and exhibition opened at Venice on the first of September. It is attracting much attention. Russia, France, Italy and Sweden, have large exhibitions. England shows but poorly.

SEA SICKNESS.

The best remedy and preventative for Sea Sickness is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It is also the best remedy for all forms of Summer complaints, whether on sea or land it will not fail you. All Druggists sell it 37½ cents per bottle.

'Dennis, my boy, come home and dine with me, though I have only a piece of roast beef and potatoes to offer you.' 'No apology,' replied Dennis; 'I will come with pleasure. It is the dinner I should have had at home barrin' the beef.'

HOW FAR WRONG IS THIS "OLD MAID?"

She had been called an old maid, and rather resented it. She said: "I am past thirty. I have a good home. I think you know I have had abundant opportunities to marry. I have been a bridesmaid a score of times. I ask my self with which one of the beautiful girls that I have seen take the marriage vow would I exchange places to-day? Not one. Some are living apart from their husbands; some are divorced; some are wives of drunken men; hang on the ragged edge of society, endeavoring to keep up appearances; some are toiling to support and educate their children, and these are the least miserable; some tread the narrow line beyond the boundry of which lies the mysterious land, and some have gone out in the darkness and unknown horrors, and some are dead. A few there are who are honored and loved and honored wives and mothers, with happy homes; but, alas! only a very few."

PEARLS OF TRUTH.

The man who possesses good health is always rich.

Without the rich heart, wealth is but an angry beggar.

Be of good cheer, is as wise a prescription for the health of the body as of the soul.

Ben Johnson says, somewhere in his Discoveries, that princes learn no art well but that of horsemanship; the reason he gives for which is, that the brave beast is no flatterer, and will throw a prince as readily as his groom.

Multitudes, in their haste to get rich, are ruined every year. The men who do things maturely, slowly, deliberately, are the men who oftenest succeed in life. People who are habitually in a hurry generally have to do things twice over.

Making people happy is neither an unimportant or small business. As I regard good nature as one of the richest fruits of true Christianity, so I regard the making of people round about us happy as one of the best manifestations of that Christian disposition which we are commanded to wear as a garment.

THE DAY OF REST.—Never was there a more blessed institution than the Sunday, the sacred day of rest from labor. For the soul's health and the body's health of the human race, on at least one day in seven there should be an ever-recurring intermission in daily toil. Thus, let a man attain to the period of three score years and ten, he has gained a holiday of ten years' duration, even if his lot has been labour for the remaining three-score years. Let childhood be taught to use, and manhood discreetly use, this blessed breathing time, as a day on which to raise the thoughts beyond that world not less than for purposes of innocent recreation.
