Bachelors' Sale at Eugenia

Oh pray, have you heard of the wonderful sale
To come off at Eugenia, without any fail?

Of bachelors there are some forty or more
To be sold off by auction at Mr. Hogg's store.

There are some of them young, and none of them old.
And without reserve bid every man must be sold,

For a railroad we want to this place without fail,
And a bonus we'll raise from this bachelors' sale.

The seller will march them in ranks through the town,
To show them off well as they prance up and down.

There won't be a bachelor there on that day
But will find some sweet maiden to take him away.

The auctioneer he will do his part well
And all their good qualities nicely he'll tell,

While the maidens, with wonder, will view the whole clan
And whisper with glee as they pick out a man.

Now, maidens, prepare; get your money on hand;
There will be bargains going I do understand.

If you don't like your choice when you take him away
Then you may dispose of him some other day.

On the day of the sale, when the auctioneer comes
With the blare of the trumpets and roll of the drums,

Eugenia has never beheld such a show
As will be those meek bachelors all in a row.

PANCTOCA

Maxwell

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. Fred Field, from Sprucedale, is visiting friends here.

Mr. J. Little, from Proton Station, visited our burg lately.

There was service in St. Mary's church on Thanksgiving evening.

Mr. Thos. Hamblin, from Durham, gave us a calll recently.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Robert Heron is recovering, after a very severe illness.

Mr. Adam Kinnear, 19 years old fell from a dredge at Albany and sustained internal injuries that terminated fatally. He was brought to Maxwell on Monday evening and his body was interred in the Presbyterian cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Radley, from Toronto, is visiting her friends in this vicinity

Flesherton Station

From our own correspondent.

Thanksgiving Day passed off quietly here.

Mr. Bert Armstrong of Flesherton preached a very edifying sermon here on Sabbath morning. We will be pleased to listen to Mr. Armstrong whenever he may be permitted to speak to us.

Our Sabbath school children are busy preparing for the entertainment which will come off in a short time.

Mr. A. Whittaker had a wood bee on Tuesday, and in the evening a party was given to the young folks.

Mr. W. Wilcox had a little child badly burned on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wansborough visited the Queen City last week.

Mr. McGill, station agent, had a very pleasant visit from his brother last week.

Vandeleur

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. J. B. Buchanan left last Thursday morning for Oregon to visit his brother Samuel, who is very ill.

Miss Agnes Jones visited at Mr R. J. Warling's a short time ago.

We are glad to learn that Mr. John Shannon has secured a first class certificate through an appeal.

Mr. William Thompson had a very successful wood bee last Thursday, also a very pleasant party at night.

Mrs. George Warling presented her husband with a boy on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Bert Armstrong very ably filled the pulpit here in the absence of our pastor on Sabbath last.

Wm. Shaw, Jessopville, died from the effects of a kick by a horse.

Eugenia.

From our own Corresponden

News is rather scarce at present. We have not even the excitement of a burning chimney to enliven us.

We have had some on the sick list the past week. Mrs. Meldrum was sick for a few days but is now better, and Mrs. Hanna's baby, which was dangerously ill with congestion of the lungs, is now out of danger.

Born,—to Mr. and Mrs. James Carson, on Nov. 19th, a son.

Mr. Kennedy, who was so seriously hurt by his horse running away some time ago, still remains in a very precarious condition, although some better.

Thanksgiving day passed of very quietly at Eugenia. Some of the boys got up a scrub hunt. What that is beats me to know, but I have not heard of them catching anything except a cold.

Mr. Herb. Johnston of Flesherton spent Sunday with his mother.

Mr. Charles Stewart of Flesherton was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Jake Williams, on Sunday last.

Miss Mima Meldrum of Flesherton, accompanied by Miss Sarah Moorehouse, spent Thankgiving day at Eugenia.

Winter seems to be putting in its claim now for a lengthy visit. Better so, as the roads were almost impassable with mud.

The Rev. Mr. Crozier of Grand Valley has preached in the hall here the past two Sabbaths to large congregations. Every one was much pleased with his preaching, he is so earnest and explains the Gospel so plainly that a child can understand.

Miss Minnie Carr has gone to Toronto to spend the winter. She will be greatly missed in the choir and among the young people, with whom she was a general favorite.

Miss Ada Sloan has been sick but is now better.

Miss Hill of Collingwood has been visiting at Mr. Thomas Bradbury's for some time.

County and District

Over twenty sheep have been killed by dogs in Luther township lately.

Joseph Hunter, aged 18, of east Garafraxa, was accidentally and fatally shot while hunting near Waldemar.

The diphtheria epidemic in Wiarton is abating.

Collingwood township will have Road Instructer Campbell, C. E., deliver a lecture on road making in the township hall, Ravenna, in December.

The night train up on Saturday ran over a man at Woodbridge named Duncan McGeachie, postmaster at Elder's Mills, killing him instantly. McGeachie attempted to cross in front of the moving train.

The Northern Exhibition (Walkerton) people will not pay a cent of their prize money this year. It would appear that they have been running a kind of a confidence game from which those swindled have no redress.

Some one has written the following, which, unfortunately, is liable to be true anywhere: Never judge a person by his outward appearance. A shabby old coat may enwrap a newspaper publisher, while a man wearing a high plug hat and sporting a gold headed cane may be a delinquent subscriber.

The law in regard to selling cigarettes or tobacco in any form to boys under eighteen years of age reads as follows: "Any person who, either directly or indirectly sells or gives or furnishes to a minor under eighteen years, cigarettess, cigars or tobacco in any form, shall on summary conviction thereof before a justice of the peace be subject to a penalty of not less than $10 or more than $20 with or without costs of prosecution, or to imprisonment with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding thirty days." Some lads evidently under 18 years of age seems to be able to secure the various preparations of the "weed."

Election Card

To the Electors of the County Council, Divison No: 5, County of Grey.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

In accordance with the expressed wishes of a number of ratepayers I have decided to run as a candidate for the County Council for this division for the year '97 and '98. My long residence in the county of over 46 years, together with ten years of municipal experience, including three years in the County Council places me in a position to comprehend the matter fully. Should you honor me with your confidence, I shall discharge my duty to the best of my ability. Your vote and interest respectfully solicited.

Yours truly,
THORP WRIGHT.

Flesherton, No. 23, '96.

The Wiarton Canadian says: Several newspapers have been publishing an item to the effect that Mr. A. Megraw, late of the Canadian, has sold his mining claim for $50.000. Who originated the item is not known, but whoever it was had no foundation whatever for the item. Mr. Megraw has not sold out and at the present time is not inclined to. His claim is a most valuable one and an assay of the ore has shown $107 in gold and $2.51 in silver to the ton.
