For the Last Time

Grey County's Parliament In Session Last Week

For the last time the County Council of Grey, under the old regime, with its membership of fifty five and its ponderous and expensive but highly educative machiney, is in session at the court house this week. When the Council next assembles it will have a somewhat attenuated appearance. In place of fifty-five members there will be but sixteen. Many men prominent heretofore in county politics will be no longer heard of, and the familiar haunts in Owen Sound that have known them thrice a a year will know them no more. The session opened at 7.30 o'clock Monday evening, Warden Anderson presiding. County Clerk Rutherford called the roll, when the following members responded : Messrs. Allan, Badgerow, Batterman, Beaton, Bell, Binnie, Brown, Bye, Chisholm, Clark, Corbet, Davis, P. Dickson, S. Dickson, Erskine, Fox, Gilray, Graham, Grier, Hampton, Harness, Henry, Howe, Irwin, Kells, Lemon, May, Messinger, Mills, Monaghan, Morice, McDonald, McGregor, McMillan, Palmer, Preston, Quinlan, Rae, Read, Ries, Shute, Schenk, Sing, Smelser, Snider, Sparling, Staples, Watson, Westaway, Williscroft, Witthun. Messrs. Boland, McKinley and Thompson arrived later. The Warden on rising to address the council, was received with applause. He said it afforded him pleasure to welcome his fellow-members back to their duties at this the last session of the old council, and to observe that they appeared in good health and spirits—ready and able to attend to their duties. Since the last session death had removed two trusted officials—Mr. Robert Edgar, county auditor, and Dr. Manley, jail surgeon. The first of these vacancies it would be necessary for the present council to fill until such times as the new council met. With regard to the jail surgeonship, he had appointed Dr. McCullough to attend to the duties temporarily, but it would be necessary for the council to pass a bylaw and have the name of its appointee filled in in the regular manner. In accordance with the county council act, the warden said, he had appointed nominating officers for the different divisions He hoped the would give general satisfaction. Refering to the large number of prisoners—mostly vagrants—at present confined in the county jail, he said that he had arranged with the chairman of the County Property Committee to have tenders called for the getting out of stone for the prisoners to break during the winter months, and these tenders would be laid before the council. The warden then referred in appropriate terms to the death of the late John Clark, M. P. for North Grey, who for many years had been a member of the county council and had served as warden. He suggested that a committee be appointed to draft a resolution of condolence to Mr Clark's wife and family. The warden concluded his remarks amidst applause

The warden then read a large number of accounts and communications, including letter form Geo. Holmes, asking permission to photograph the council ; an application from Lieut. Col. Telford, commanding officer of the 31st battalion, asking for a supplementary grant of 25 cents per day for each member of the Battalion attending the annual camp, county treasurer's annual statement of auctioneers' and pedlars' licenses; copy of presentment of Grand Jury presented to Mr. Justice Street at fall assizes ; applications for the position of jail surgeon from Drs. T. H. Middlebro, C. E. Barnhart, J. G. M. Sloane and W. George Dow. The communications were referred to the appropriate committees for action.

On motion of Messrs. Read and Gilray, the reeves of Keppel, Glenelg, Osprey, Artemesia, the warden and the mover were appointed a committee to draft a resolution of condolence to the widow and family of the late John Clark, M. P.

Council then adjourned till 2 p. m. on Tuesday.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

The warden took the chair at 2 p. m. After routine proceedings a number of accounts and the following communications were read : Invitation from David Comely, proprietor of the Comely House, to a farewell oyster supper in honor of the warden and council, to be held Friday evening; applications for the position of jail surgeon from Drs. J. H. McCullough, C. M. Lang, W. Geo. Dow and W. J. Earley.

Mr. Preston presented the report of the special committee, appointed to draft a resolution of condolence to the widow and family of the late John Clark, M. P. Following is the resolution :

"The county council of the county of Grey take this opportunity to express their condolence with the widow and family of the late John Clark, M. P., ex-reeve of Keppel, who was an esteemed member of this council from the year 1880 up to and including the year 1895.

"During the many years that he occupied a seat at this board he was remarkable for his ability, earnestness, candour, cheerfulness and courtesy. No man ever possessed more thoroughly the esteem and confidence of his colleagues, and no man was ever more sincerely mourned by his fellow-members.

"To the widow and children, this council can only extend their heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement, and commend them to the care and keeping of their Heavenly Father, who knoweth what is best for them and whose ways are not man's ways."

The report recommended that the resolution be suitably printed and framed, signed by the warden and clerk and presented to Mrs. Clark by the reeve and first deputy reeve of Keppel and the reeve of St. Vincent.

Several members spoke feelingly of Mr. Clark's many excellent qualities. Mr. Binnie said that those who had sat for a long time with the late reeve of Keppel in the council, and were specially acquainted with the man and his character, were thoroughly impressed that John Clark was a man in every sense of the word. The speaker had first become acquainted with Mr. Clark six years ago. He could say that no man ever impressed him more favorably. His information was ample and broad, and his sympathies were as broad as his information. John Clark took no narrow view on any subject ; but if he found himself mistaken he was the first to acknowledge his error. In debate he was eminently fair, never descending to personalities. It would be well were all to take a lesson from his life. The speaker felt that the highest tribute to Mr. Clark would be the imitation of his character.

A touching scene was now enacted. Mr. Nicholas Read, the veteran deputy reeve of St. Vincent, who was associated so long and on such intimate terms with Mr. Clark in county council work, rose to attempt to pay his deceased friend a tribute ; but his voice choked with emotion and he was unable to proceed. All he could manage to say was that if he were to attempt at the present moment to express himself, his failure, he feared, might be considered as affectation. He could only thank the council for associating his name with the presentation of the resolution. Outside of his own family he had never felt the death of any man as he felt the death of John Clark and perhaps never would again. A deep silence pervaded the chamber during Mr. Read's brief and simple but touching and eloquent testimony to his friend.

Mr. Whitnun, reeve of Keppel, briefly thanked the council on behalf of the township and on behalf of Mr. Clark's family for the resolution and also thanked them for associating his name therewith.

Mr. Sing re-echoed the opinions of the preceding speakers. He was in the council when Mr. Clark was first elected. He had never met a man whom he respected more. Everyone felt whenever Mr. Clark said anything he meant it. It was a sad thing that after so much labor and anxiety, Mr. Clark had been unable to enjoy his honors, but as the resolution expressed it, God's ways are not our ways. It would be well for all to emulate Mr. Clark's character.

Mr. Harness also spoke briefly. Coming as he did from an a joining municipality he had a good deal to do with Mr. Clark and had always found in him a straightforward, upright man, worthy of all imitation!

Mr. Binnie here read a stanza composed by Mr. Read. The verse he said had not been intended to be made public, but some of his friends to who Mr. Read had shown it, had thought so much of it they considered it might be read, The stanza is as follows :

John Clark as county councillor
Was honest and discreet ;
In the Dominion Parliament
His friends gave him a seat,
His Maker knowing he was fit
For a much higher post
He took him to Himself and plac'd
Him 'mongst the heav'nly host.

Mr. Binnie suggested that the verse should accompany the resolution of condolence—a proposal which met with the approval of the council.

Mr. Harness introduced bylaw 523 to appoint a jail surgeon. Mr. Graham introduced bylaw 524 to confirm bylaw 17 of the year 1895 of the township of Sarawak, respecting a road deviation. Mr. Irwin introduced bylaw 525 to appoint an auditor on the nomination of the warden instead of the late Robert Edgar. These bylaws were read a first and second time and then went into committee of the whole, Mr. Shute in the chair. The bylaw to appoint a jail surgeon was filled up with the name of Dr. T. H. Middlebro, on the third ballot.

The salary of the jail surgeon was finally after a lengthy discussion fixed at $250—fifty dollars less than formerly. There was a vigorous discussion on a clause in the bylaw forbidding the surgeon to prescribe intoxicating liquor for prisoners "except in extreme cases." The majority of the council took the view that this was an unnecessary interference with the surgeon to whose discretion all such matters should be left, and the clause was struck out.

The bylaw to appoint an auditor on the nomination of warden was filled in with the name of C. A. Fleming, the remuneration being fixed at $3 per day and mileage.

Having covered all the bylaws, the committee rose and reported progress.

Lt.-col. Telford and capt. McKnight on behalf of the 31st Batt. addressed the council, asking that a grant of 25 cents per day be made to each member of the battalion for the time spent in the camp, in accordance with the customary practice. The gentlemen showed abundant reasons why the grant should be made this year as heretofore.

At 6 o'clock the council adjourned till 7 p. m. Wednesday evening.—Times.

A syndicate of Blythe farmers shipped apples to the old country and cleared 70 cents a barrel.
