NOTES AND COMMENTS.

It is reported that the Prince of Wales has arranged a meeting between the Czar and Lord Salisbury at Balmoral, when the Turkish question will be discussed.

The Wine and Spirit Gazette, of New York, which ought to know what it is talking about in this connection, gives us this bit of cheering news: "There is everywhere a growing prejudice against the liquor trade."

The Globe, with a view to a thorough discussion on the Prohibition question, in view of the coming plebiscite, invites suggestions as to the best method of making good the $7,089,556 deficit in the event of that tax being relinquished by prohibition.

Total prohibition now prevails in the House of Commons of Canada. A vote on Monday to prohibit its sale, any place within the precincts of the House was carried without a dissenting voice. Both Mr. Laurier and Sir Charles Tupper spoke in favor of this total prohibition.

The caucus of Conservative members of Parliament on Monday decided not to move a resolution on the correspondence between Lord Aberdeen and Sir Charles Tupper, but the ex Premier will make a speech on it. The Opposition will not prevent prorogation at the end of the month.

There is said to be a lively competition for the seat in the Senate rendered vacant by the death of Sir David Macpherson. It would not be surprising if the Government were to give the position to one of its party friends. This, as a matter of fact, has often been done before. Of the candidates mentioned so far there is not one more worthy of the Senatorial honors than Mr. James Innes, of Guelph. Mail and Empire

The Anglo-Canadian trade still advances and the imports into Great Britain from Canada increased 31 per cent. during August, as compared with August of 1895, while the British imports from all countries have increased only 6 per cent. The imports from Canada for the eight months increased £1,400,000 or nearly 30 per cent., while the British imports from all countries increased only 3 per cent.

The Sultan has apparently decided to defy the powers, and it is to be hoped that he will abide by his decision, for it can hardly fail to result in his deposition. Another massacre is generally apprehended, but it may be taken for granted that the powers, now apparently thoroughly aroused, will take steps to prevent its being effectively carried out. It is evident that England has reached the end of her patience, and is prepared to take action; that being the case, the powers will bow to the necessity for joint action in order to prevent the immediate general conflagration which must ensue if one power went to work to pull down the Ottoman empire.—Witness.

An extra of the Canadian Gazette has just been issued with a proclamation, warning people against a breach of the Foreign Enlistment Act. The reason for this is that representations have been made to the Government by the Spanish Consul general at Montreal that a ship is now being fitted out at Cleveland with volunteers to help the insurgents in Cuba, and that as the proclamation of President Cleveland prevents the boat from clearing from a United States port, it is intended that the boat shall clear from Cleveland to a Canadian port, presumably Port Stanley and thence to Cuba. The story is a wildly improbable one, but the issue of the Gazette extra is a fact.

The orders issued to the British squadron under Admiral Seymour to rendezvous at Salonica in October are distinctly connected with the change in British policy towards the Porte which marked the arrival of Sir Philip Currie, the British Ambassador, in Constantinople. Sir Philip, without ostentatiously declaring a more active and isolated English policy, has conveyed the impression to other European diplomats at Constantinople that henceforth the European concord will be adhered to by England only so far as it agrees with a purely English policy. There must be no more massacres of Christians nor Moslem mob rioting, nor inciting to general murder, without practical intervention by England, with or without the approval of the other powers.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR CANADA

English Capitalists are now Turning Their Attention Here.

TORONTO, Sept. 15.—There arrived in this city yesterday a gentleman whose presence here betokens the interest that Canada's mineral wealth is awakening in England. Mr. A. Maclean of the great Leadenhall Street, London, Eng., firm of Maclean & Co., mining capitalists, is the person referred to.

Maclean & Co. have millions in the gold mines of South Africa, New Zealand, Australia and the United States, and are now seeking for new worlds to conquer—are turning their eyes towards Canada. Mr. Maclean is here for the purpose of personally investigating Canada's mineral resources. In a day or two he leaves for Rossland, taking in on the way the Ontario gold region in the Rainy River and Lake of the Woods districts.

British Columbia, Mr. Maclean thinks, is splendidly situated for securing English capital, because communication with the Old Land is so easy and inexpensive.

The long ocean journey and the heavy cable rates from England to Australia and New Zealand militated strongly against the mines out there; and, besides, while British Columbia has lots of fresh water, in West Australia the procuring of the fluid for working, and even drinking purposes, was most difficult.

Li Hung Chang arrived at Vancouver and embarked on board the steamer Empress of China for home on Sunday. His reception was attended by a large number of Chinese.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

In the September Review of Reviews, the editor discusses different phases of the Presidential campaign especially the revolt of the gold standard Democrats the Eastern wage earners toward Mr Bryan, and the spread of free silver doctrine among the farmers. Another important topic of discussion in the department of "The Progress of the World" is Lord Salisbury's Venezuelan proposition, in connection with the general scheme for a permanent tribunal of arbitration. The editor also covers most of the striking developements of the month in British and European politics.

The September number of the Delineator is called the Autumn Announcement number and is the handsomest and most striking sterling publication yet issued, contain no less than nine beautifully colored plates illustrating Dress Modes and Millinery, including special plates of Mourning and Bicycle Attire, and giving the first authoritative announcement of the coming styles for Autumn wear. It is a highly interesting number to the ladies of the household. Address all communications to the Delineator Publishing Co. of Toronto, Ltd., 33 Richmond St West, Toronto, Ont., or to the local agent for the Butterick Patterns in your town. Subscription price of the Delineator $1.00 per year, or 10c. per single copy.

Far and Fire for September, published by the Bryant Press, Toronto, is a magnificent number. It opens out with a full and readable description of what is being done for agriculture in Ontario by means of governmental enterprise and voluntary association, giving an account of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, and its work, and of many of the associations and societies that have been formed to advance agriculture in Ontario, such as the different live stock associations, the different dairy associations, the farmers' institutes, etc. Other leading articles take up the Silo, the Heavy Horse Trade, The Enriching of Impoverished Soils, How to Make Money out of Poultry, Draining Roads, etc., many of them illustrated. The programme for the year includes a number of articles on the Dairy Industry, the Sheep Industry, the Beef Industry, the Pork Industry, New Methods of Tillage, Suitable Seeds for Special Soils, etc. We commend Farming as being worth many times over the subscription price, which is only $1.00.

A new volume "Saddle, Sled and Snowshoe," by Rev John McDougall, has just been issued by the Methodist Book Room, Toronto. No author on this continent is better qualified to write upon the subject named than Mr McDougall. Since early boyhood he has traversed the wilds of the Canadian North West and knows it from Lake Superior to the Rocky Mountains most familiarly. He has withal the faculty of depicting his intimate knowledge and observations in interesting and cleverly expressed language. This was proven in his previous volume on pioneer life in the far west, "Forest, Lake and Prairie," which was read with avidity by those who enjoy well told anecdotes of exciting and dangerous adventure. These works are well calculated to inspire a healthy interest on the part of our young people in the newer provinces of our own country. Price, in cloth, $1.00.

STRANGER THAN FICTION

IS THE TRUTH CONCERNING JOHN GIBBONS, OF EAST LONDON.

He Was Tortured With the Pains of Sciatic Rheumatism—Tried Doctors, all Sorts of Medicine, and Went to the Hospital in Vain—Dr. Williams's Pink Pills Cured Him When All Else had Failed.

From the London Advertiser.

There are two things in this world which Mr John Gibbons, a resident of Queen's Avenue East, will henceforth place implicit confidence in. One is the judgment of his wife and the other the curative qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In his case the two went hand in hand. Mrs. Gibbons thought of the remedy, the pills did the rest, and to day Mr Gibbons is a well man where last fall he was virtually a cripple. An Advertiser reporter called at the house the other evening and was met at the door by Mr. Gibbons, to whom he told the object of his visit, and was cordially invited in. The reporter had no sooner got comfortably seated when Mr. Gibbons went into an adjoining room. The sound of clinking bottles floated through the half open door and when Mr. Gibbons reappeared he had in his arms a whole basket of bottles—all he has to show for many and many a hard earned dollar spent in useless drugs. As Mr. Gibbons was busy showing the bottles and descanting upon the impotency of the medicines they had contained, the reporter had abundant opportunity of marking the personal appearance of the man. His speech betrays his English birth and his face still bears the marks of suffering, but his frame is erect, his step light and elastic, and when he tells you that he can work, run, or jump with any man, you cannot help but believe him. He is 29 years of age and was born in Bow Road, Stratford, England. He came to Canada in 1882 and located at Galt, where he is well and favorably known. He worked for the Hon. Mr. Young, member of parliament, for a long time and seven years ago he married Miss Alice Mann, also of Galt. After Mr. Gibbons removed to London he settled down near the car shops and did very well, always having plenty of work and always having the strength to do it. He cared nothing about a wetting until one day a year ago he took an acute attack of sciatic rheumatism following wet feet. "I lay down on this floor," said Mr. Gibbons, in telling his story, "night and day suffering terrible agony. I could not get up a step and my wife had to help me up from the floor. I felt the pain in my back first. It then apparently left my back and got into my hips. Doctors came here to see me. They gave me prescriptions but none of them seemed to do me any good. The neighbors could hear me all over Queen's Avenue when I would get an attack of the pains. Last fall I was taken out of this place in a hack and taken to the hospital. I remained there about three weeks and the doctors did what they could for me but could not give me any relief. At the end of three weeks I came home again suffering as much as ever. My wife got hold of a pamphlet which told of a number of remarkable cures by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and we determined to try them. I took about three boxes and felt myself getting a little easier. I took thirteen boxes altogether, and it is over two months since I felt the least suggestion of pain." "Do you feel that you are entirely cured?" asked the reporter. "Yes, sir. I can go out and do a day's work just as well as ever I could. I feel perfectly strong and have a good appetite." "No, I don't want another attack of sickness like that," said Mr. Gibbons, as he lighted the reporter to the door.

Mrs Gibbons was not at home on the occasion of the reporter's first visit. Subsequently he called on her and received an entire confirmation of Mr Gibbons' story. "He was home all last summer," said Mrs. Gibbons, "and last August the pains were so severe as to bring him down on his knees, and to save himself he could not get up. I had to lift him off the floor many a time. He seemed powerless. The bottles he showed you had almost all of them been repeatedly filled so that the number of bottles is no criterion of the amount of medicine taken. Before he took the pills," continued Mrs. Gibbons, "I thought my husband would never be able to stand up right again. But now," she added in parting, "he is as well as ever he was."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills create new blood, build up the nerves, and thus drive disease from the system. In hundreds of cases they have cured after all other medicines had failed, thus establishing the claim that they are a marvel among the triumphs of modern medical science. The genuine Pink Pills are sold only in boxes bearing the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Protect yourself from imposition by refusing any pill that does not bear the registered trade mark around the box.

The Manitoba census shows a population of 193,425.

You can sell cream as fast as it can be made and sell freezers to many of them who would not buy an old style freezer. It is really a curiosity and you can sell from $5 to $8 worth of cream and six to twelve freezers every day. This makes a good profit these hard times and is a pleasant employment. J. F.
