HALTON MANOR

Acton Baptist Church Choir Sings at Saturday Service

By Miss Muriel Thompson

A small but talented church choir paid a visit to the Manor on Saturday night, November 20 when nine members of the Acton Baptist church choir gave a concert of sacred numbers.

Rev. S. Gammon announced the program. Mrs. Joan Harrison directed the choir and C. Landsborough played the piano. The program began with a sing-song. The choir sang Living for Jesus, Just a Closer Walk with God, and He's Got the Whole World in His Hands. Mrs. Feltham and Mrs. Ball very comforting address based on verse 16 of chapter 3 of St. John's Gospel. This verse describes the greatest love ever conferred on mankind, God's love, in the person of Christ and His greatest gift, the promise of eternal life. Tea, coffee and cookies were served to these true friends at the close of the program and many invitations to come again were extended.

Harrison sang a duet. Mrs. Feltham sang a solo and Mr. Landsborough played a cornet solo, Bless This House.
