Town Line A and E

From our own Correspondent.

The Rev. Mr. Scott has been holding revival meetings in the church here during the last two weeks. From stormy weather and other causes they were not very well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snell lost their only child from croup on Friday, Jan. 29.

There has been two lumber trains passing here daily all last week, one from Kimberley and the other from Wodehouse.

Vandeleur

From our own Correspondent.

Mrs. Riddle, from Albion, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dunlop, during the past week.

Mr. J. I. Graham hasn't got his water wheel started yet. It was a quite a wheel to tackle.

Our literary society held a very successful contest last Friday eve., the program was very well rendered. The captains were Robt. Pritchard, and Edgar Hutchinson. The latter was the winner. Another contest is being prepared for next Friday evening.

Mr. R. Shannon of Corbetton, spent Sunday of last week with his son, Geo.

Married—On the 27th, Miss Mary Brodie was united in wedlock to Mr. Ellis of British Columbia, son of D. R. Ellis of Wodehouse. We understand the young couple intend going to the coast this week.

Vandeleur

From a Special Correspondent

The people of this village are as hale and hearty as ever.

The Literary Society organized here a few weeks ago is progressing favorably. The meeting held Friday last was a great success. Two programs were given under the leadership of the captains Rob. Pritchard and Edgar Hutchinson, the side giving the best program to be considered the winners. Judgment was given in favor of the latter, although that given by the former was exceptionally good, but rather short. The society will meet on Friday next at the old school house at 7.30 p. m., when a similar entertainment will be given. The public are welcome.

Our pastor, Mr. Mahan, preached to a large audience on Sunday last on the subject "looking for a wife." The effect of his sermon, will, no doubt, be known later on.

Lady Bank

From our own Correspondent

The Rev. Mr. Legate is holding a series of meetings in the Methodist church here.

The S. A. opened their barracks by Ensign Cameron of Toronto, with service on Sunday afternoon and evening, and a social on Monday evening, which was a grand success. The army deserve great praise for the way they have finished their place of worship.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs. Paul, who had her leg broken by a fall some time ago, is recovering.

Miss Maggie Whewell who has been in the city for sometime returned on Saturday.

Miss Maggie Ferguson who, has been at McIntyre for some time, has returned home.

Mr. John T. Wallace of Thessalon and his sister, Jennie, visited with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul.

Mr. Wm. Finley from the gravel road paid Lady Bank a flying visit on Sunday last.

Miss Lizzie Finley visited her home lately.

Mr. John Linley returned lately, after building the timber camps below the Eugenia Falls.

Born—On Jan. 25, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roberts, a son.

Priceville

From our own Correspondent.

The subscriptions to the East Indian Famine Fund have been pouring in. The P. S. collected and contributed $7 for the fund last week.

The trustees of U. S. S. No. 12, A. and G. have decided to allow the Artemesia Agricultural Society the use of the school grounds for exhibition purposes providing there are no legal difficulties in the way. The Crown Attorney is to be consulted in the matter.

The Rev. J. S. Humpbreys and Mr. William Watters are attending the E. L. District Convention in Owen Sound this week.

A sleigh load of Pricevillites drove over to Flesherton last Friday evening. Of course the boys and girls feel very thankful to Angus for their pleasant outing.

Miss Flossie Hartley, of Palmerston, spent a few days of last week visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. William G. Watson returned to Georgetown last week, after a few weeks at home.

The Rev. Mr. Humphreys attended three funerals in Proton last week on as many consecutive days, namely Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. James Burnett, Lachie McMillan and Donald McLean arrived home from Michigan last week, as there was no work in the lumber woods on account of the scarcity of snow.

A number of the young people of this neighborhood paid Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLean of Dromore a visit last week.

Epping

From our own Correspondent.

We had a taste of genuine winter a week ago, when the roads were so blocked that the north mail to Meaford did not get through for three days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Eaton, of Meaford, left for Kemble Monday, after spending a couple of months with their son, J. F. Eaton, of this place. It is the intention of the old couple to spend a year or so visiting their children in different parts of Canada and the United States.

Miss Mattie Gilray is at present visiting friends in Toronto. Mr. T. Gilray returned last week, after a short visit to the city.

Mr. S. McKnight had the bad fortune to lose a valuable horse recently, and Mr. Cann's old mail horse, thinking that his day of usefulness had passed, "slippet awa'" one night recently.

Our farmers seem to be very unfortunate lately. Mr. Black lost a good milch cow a week ago.

We regret to say that Mr. John Brocklebank is ill with congestion of the lungs.

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

What lovely bright weather we have had for the last few days. The roads are good and sleighing excellent. Farmers are busy hauling out wood and poles and all sorts of stuff to the station. As the winter is wearning over pretty fast they have need to make good use of their time now while sleighing lasts.

A few of the Presbyterians of Eugenia went out to Flesherton on Thursday afternoon last to meet with the Flesherton congregation with the view of giving a call to a minister.

Don't forget the tea-meeting at the hall on 10th and 12th. A good time is expected and a cordial welcome is extended to all.

The falls presents a beautiful appearance now with its columns of ice and the trees and rocks covered with hoarfrost.

Miss Bella Hislop of the valley is visiting with Mrs. Robert Purvis this week.

The logs are rushing into our saw mills now.

Mr. Joseph Walker of Creemore is visiting at his uncle's, Mr. John Beecroft

Flesherton Station

From our own correspondent.

The fine weather and good sleighing has brightened business considerably, the farmers being enabled to get out their timber and grain

Mr. F. McArthur has shipped five car load of poles.

Boyd Bros. have succeeded in getting their wind mill placed on the elevator and it is now in running order.

Miss Frank and Charlie Pickell visited R. Cook last week.

Miss Jennie Hemphill visited friends in Dunnalk last week.

Miss Maud Hodgins of Hornings Mills, is spending a few days with friends in town.

Dr. and Mrs. Mahan and Miss Lou Armstrong, visited Mrs. Tucker last week.

The Presbyterians are holding prayer meeting on the west back line.

Mr. Geo. and Martha Snell, who have been ailing for some time, are slowly recovering.

Miss Jennie Cairns visited the north line last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Muir buried baby on Monday.

Miss Mary McArthur returned from the city to spend the winter with her mother.

This was an interesting action in which judgement was delivered last week at Durham. It appears E. A. C. Pew, of St. Catharines, the promoter of an electric railway from Port Perry via Shelburne, Durham, Walkerton to Kincardine, obtained from several parties in Durham signatures for subscriptions of $50 to aid in the promotion of the railway to be known as the Huron & Ontario Electric Railway Co. It appears that in the railway committee of the House of Commons last session a charter was refused until Mr. Pew transferred all the subscriptions to the company. This was done and the charter for the road obtained, but at a subsequent meeting of the directors the subscriptions were transferred back to Mr. Pew. Mayor Laidlaw, of Durham, was appointed director and undertook to collect these subscriptions. Henry Parker and others refused to pay the subscriptions, alleging that nothing had been done to carry out the agreement and that neither Pew nor Laidlaw had given them the paid up stock ($500) their subscriptions called for, and suit was entered by Laidlaw to compel all delinquents to pay up. I. B. Lucas, of Markdale, appeared for the plaintiff, and Wm. Kingston, Q. C., for defendants, some of whom were defended by Barrister McCaul, of Durham. The case was tried before the Division Court at Durham some two months ago and judgment was reserved. Judgment was, however, given last week by His Honor Judge Morrison, ordering a non suit in each, without costs to the defendents. The Durham Review says in reference to the case, that the subscribers go scot free, the defect in the agreement being that no one is mentioned as payee, and that steps may yet be taken to recover back moneys paid by those who have handed over their subscriptions.

The following gentlemen have recently been appointed license commissioners for Centre Grey: Messrs. Chas. Pye, Thos. McGill and Patrick McCullough.—Herald.
