It was a great shock to the community when it was learned Sunday week that Mr. John Brocklebank had died about noon. It was known that he was ill and that his illness was serious, nevertheless few were prepared for the news of his death, after so short an illness. Mr. Brocklebank came to reside in this neighborhood about four years ago, and was an industrious young man who had won the respect of all who knew him. He was a member of the Methodist church. His parents and friends have the sympathy of all in their sudden bereavement. The beginning of his illness was inflammation of the lungs, but his death was due to heart failure, aggravated by a severe attack of inflammation of the lungs. Deceased was a son of Mr. Wm. Brockelbank of Collingwood township. He was hortly to have been married. The funeral took place on Tuesday to Thornbury cemetery, and a memorial service was held in the Methodist church here, of which deceased was a member, on Sunday morning, when Rev. Mr. Wass preached an appropriate sermon to a large congregation.

On Tuesday night of last week Mr. Louis Donnelly, son of Mr. Thomas Donnelly, passed away after a prolonged illness. His death did not come as a surprise, as it had been known that his recovery was impossible for some time, but was, nevertheless, sad, in that he was young—just entering manhood, being only 20 years of age. His funeral took place Thursday, also to Thornbury.

The comfortable and pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm McConnell was the scene of a happy gathering on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 10, when their second daughter, Annie, was married to Mr. Herbert J. Reid, eldest son of Mr. Hugh Reid. The little bride wore a becoming gown prettily trimmed with lace and ribbon, her maid of honor, Miss Maggie McConnell, also being gowned in cream. Mr. S. J McKnight acted as best man. Rev. J. B. Wass performed the interesting ceremony, which changed into a matron one of the sweetest of our maidens, in the presence of about fifty guests. When all had partaken of a daintily served supper, the evening was devoted to the enjoyment of music, games and social converse. The young couple left by the early train Thursday, followed by the good wishes of a host of friends, and will spend a fortnight with friends on this and the other side of the line. Mrs. Reid was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts.

Miss Goodfellow and Miss McAusland returned home last week after spending a week with their aunt, Mrs. W. J. Black.

Mr. Alex. McConnell of Toronto is visiting his uncle, Mr Wm. McConnell

A few of our young people are in the habit of going over to Rocklyn evenings to enjoy the skating, as Rocklyn has arrived at the dignity of a rink all its own.

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

Fine weather and excellent sleighing. This winter for so far has been so very mild we cannot realize that winter is so far gone.

Mr. Scott of Toronto was up the past week buying a great quantity of lumber from Mr. Walker Sloan. A cute gentleman from Toronto, named Teeter, recently bought a car load of lumber from Mr. Sloan, and was to pay for same when culled and loaded on cars, but as soon as he got it all ready he forgot to send Mr. Sloan his money. He got on a freight train and started for the city. Mr. Sloan followed on the next train and fortunately found his lumber at the station in Toronto. He has not found Mr. Teeter yet, but his lumber is not lost.

Mr. Walton Williams spent the past week visiting friends in Toronto.

Mr. Alex. Ferguson and sister of Lady Bank paid a short visit to Eugenia the past week.

Mrs. Fenwick, who has been visiting friends in Toronto for some time past, has returned home slightly improved in health.

Miss Hislop of the valley, is visiting friends around Flesherton the past week.

Mrs. Donald McKenzie of the station has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hislop, of the valley, for some time.

Mr. John A. Fenwick has rented a farm atEderslie and intends to move his family there shortly.

The tea-meeting and social held at the hall the past week was a success, considering the hard times. Mr. Meldrum occupied the chair. The singing by the choir was fine. Recitations by Miss Mina Meldrum and Miss Mamie Hogg were well received, also instrumental music by Messrs. Carr and Pedlar. With speeches and readings a very pleasant evening was spent. A quartette of colored brethern entertained the audience with good music. The proceeds amounted to twenty dollars.

Rev. Mr. Harrison of Dundalk preached at the hall on Sunday last. Owing to the storm and wind that day there were few present.

Flesherton Station

From our own correspondent.

Mr. Geo. Cushnie of Holstein spent Sunday here with his mother, Mrs. Tucker.

Mrs. R. Wright of the Orange Valley is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Legate.

Mr. and Mrs. Snell of Holland visited friends on the west back line last week.

Mr. Connor of Dundalk is visiting at Mr. Egan's for a few days.

Mr. J. D. Morgan has been busy loading poles the past week.

Mr. A Vhittaker, of this place, has gone to Kimberley to hew timber.

Mr. McFarlan and Mr. Burnett of Durham spent Sunday with Mr. Cairns.

Mr J. Warling and family have moved to the Meaford Road.

The remains of Mrs. Ferguson of Chicago, formerly of Priceville, came to this station last week and were meet by Priceville friends.

Lady Bank

From our own Correspondent

The revival meetings here have been a great success. Between forty and fifty have already professed conversion.

Rev. Mr. Campbell of Ravenna took charge of the meeting on Wednesday last. Mr. F. Brownlee is carrying on the meetings in the absence of Mr. Legate. Mr. Brownlee is a young man of great promise. Mr. E. Hudson of Ravenna preached an interesting sermon on Sunday from the words: "Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love." Jer 31 3.

A few of our young people attended the social at Eugenia on Friday evening last and report having had a good time.

Mr. Will Linley has treated himself to a new cutter.

Mr. W. Whewell took a business trip to Stayner last week. Miss Alice Whewell is visiting friends in Stayner this week.

Mrs. Kirby of Collingwood is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Linley.

Vandeleur

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. John Warling of Flesherton Station has moved to our neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs Jervis Alcox and daughter of Moose Jaw visited their uncle, John Alcox, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Wickens of Kimberley, with a few friends, spent a pleasant evening Monday at W. Hutchins'.

Mrs. McIver from North Bry and her sister, Miss Rose Ferris of Beaverdale, visited their uncle, Mr. J. C. Buchanan, last week.

Mrs. Boyd of Temple Hill visited her sister, Mrs. Marshal Beard, lately.

Mrs. R. G. Warling, who was on the sick list, is some better.

A phrenologist named Duncan was billed for a lecture here on Thursday evening last, but failed to appear.

Mr. J. C. Buchanan, who has been in Oregon for the last two months, has returned home. His brother, Mr. Samuel Buchanan and wife, accompanied him.

Priceville

From our own Correspondent.

Last week Mr. A. broke a bench in his sleigh. He grabbed an axe, went out to the woods and hewed a stick of timber big enough for a small mud sill to replace the broken part and then he brought the whole outfit to this burg for repairs. But a new pair of "bobs" caught his eye and now a streak of red dazzles the visual organs as Angus goes flying by. Look out for some more jolly sleigh rides to Flesherton.

We omitted to mention in our items last week that Mrs. Malcolm Cameron was summoned to Toronto lately as a witness in a case between the Toronto street railway company and a newsboy. The latter was hurt by the street cars last fall, and as Mrs Cameron was on the car at the time of the accident, she was a very important witness.

The Rev. Mr. Harrison of Dundalk occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sabbath evening. His clear-cut, practical discourse on "Giving" was listened to by a large and attentive congregation.

Sacramental services in the foregoing church were conducted in Gaelic last Sunday. Next Sabbath similar services will take place in English.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha Ferguson of Detroit, whose death we mentioned last week, took place from Flesherton Station last Wednesday on the arrival of the noon train. The remains were taken to the Baptist church, where the Rev. Mr. McLeod preached a very suitable sermon. A large number of friends was present.

It is our sorrowful duty this week to chronicle the death of Mr. Colin McArthur, which occurred in Detroit last Monday. The late Mr. McArthur was a respected resident of this village for a number of years. Mrs Geo. Tryon and Mrs. F. McKinnon are sisters of deceased. The bereaved family have our sympathy.

Mr. Henry Hogarth left for Whitby last Thursday Henry will be greatly missed in the social circles of our burg, where he was a general favorite We wish him success.

Messrs. M. Riley and James Watson attended the Conservative convention at Rocklyn on Tuesday. The lion and the lamb have surely lain down together this time.

Valentines were conspicuous by their absence in this burg this year. By the way, however, we almost forgot that a "beauty" arrived from the Queen City for one of our popular young society men.

We were pleased to meet our old friend, Mr. Neil McMillan, last week. Neil is still a resident of Uncle Sam's domains. Dame rumor saith that he will not return to Montana alone, but that is none of our concern.

At the cattle fair last Monday very few animals were offered for sale. We are glad to state that prices are much improved and there is every indication of "better times" in the stock line.

Farmers may as well make up their minds to quit raising any more horses than they need for farm purposes. Last week a large drove of fine looking horses passed through here en route for Markdale, but, as might be expected, nearly the same number returned. Oats may be cheap, but there is more money in selling oats at 15c a bushel than in feeding them to horses and then giving the horses away, or worse still, keeping the animals until they eat their heads off twice or three times.

The fruit-growers of Ontario are threatened with a new pest, a small insect called the San Joe Scale or Bark Louse. The insect has lately spread throughout the nurseries and orchards of Ohio and New York, doing great damage.
