

Information is requested regarding three former citizens of Lindsay, a man named Lipford, a man named Lindsay and a man named Scugog. "Main Street" has received an inquiry from California, U.S.A. and the information is needed to help assemble a family tree.

* * *

Where is my Wandering Boy Tonight, is the title of an old, old song. One answer is probably "gone fishing", and possibly at the government locks on Lindsay street. Mere kids can be noticed at the water's edge these days and unfortunately the danger of falling in exists. Parents should be aware of their offspring's presence on the locks these days. Some of the youngsters manage to get themselves into very dangerous positions as they dangle a line from the ridge of the cement wall or at the dangerous edge of the canoe slide below the dam. Boys will be boys and parents should be parents and keep a tab on their children at this time of year.

* * *

The Kiwanis Victoria County Music Festival which had a successful life of some eighteen years will probably be revived as a Centennial project in 1967. Past records show that some 8,000 young and old contestants took part in the festival one year.

As preliminary plans for a music festival should get under way in 1966, directors of the Kiwanis Club are expected to submit plans to the club very shortly. R. L. Hale, now living in Peterboro and formerly of the Lindsay Collegiate staff was the first president of the Victoria Festival and Miss Katherine McKay of Woodville was the Secretary for several years.

The first Festival was held in the Anglican Parish Hall and succeeding events were held in St. Andrew's Church and Fenelon Falls United Church.