Miss Agnes Kempel, who lives alone in a portion of Mrs. Burke's double house on Yonge street, went violently insane on Tuesday night and after smashing the pictures on the wall and breaking almost everything about the place, attempted to set fire to the house by making a bonfire on the floor, in the centre of which she placed a can filled with coal oil. A neighbor, who heard the racket and saw her lighting the bonfire, phoned to Chief Ferguson and that limb of the law broke the speed limit in getting to the scene On arriving the Chief found the unfortunate woman out on the road waiting for the place to go up in smoke. Grabbing the kerosene can from the flames before it had ignited, the sleuth succeeded, with others, in tramping the blaze out and rescuing the premises from the fire king. Placing the lady under arrest, the officer removed her to the jail, where she will remain until transferred to the asylum, she having been an inmate in the insane institution on several occasions in the past —Bruce Herald and Times.

Geo. B. Richardson, of Widdifield, formerly of Shelburne, was seriously injured on Tuesday of last week. He was engaged in the woods cutting saw logs when a tree fell on him, breaking both his legs and causing other severe injuries. He had to remain under the tree until his son and another boy sawed the tree in logs so they could remove him. He is very badly injured and may not recover.—Shelburne Free Press. Later—Word has been received that Mr. Richardson succumbed to his injuries.
